FINANCING INDIA'S IMPERIAL RAILWAYS, 1875–1914

BY

Stuart Sweeney
CONTENTS

Introduction

1 'Productive' Indian Railways, 1875–1914: Space for Gentlemanly Capitalists and Industrialists in a Mixed Economy 13

2 Indian Railways and Famines, 1875–1914: Magic Wheels and Empty Stomachs 43

3 Military Railways in India, 1875–1914: Russophobia, Technology and the Indian Taxpayer 67

4 Indian Railroading: Floating Railway Companies in the Late Nineteenth Century 97

5 Northern Wars and Southern Diplomacy: Sir Douglas Forsyth's Second Career on the Indian Railways 115

6 Eminent ICS Victorians: Richard Strachey and Theodore Hope as Poachers and Gamekeepers 139

7 Background, Proceedings and Legacy of the Mackay Committee of 1908: Gentlemanly Capitalists, Indian Nationalists and Laissez-faire 159

Conclusion 179

Appendices 187

Notes 197

Works Cited 233

Index 247