

1 AM 274 2462

Making Reform Happen

LESSONS FROM OECD COUNTRIES

Table of contents

Executive summary	9
Chapter 1. Reform beyond the crisis	11
Common challenges and diverse contexts	12
Managing the process: some general lessons	16
Sectoral perspectives on making reform happen	20
The challenge of reform after the crisis	30
The challenge of reform and the role of the OECD	32
Notes.....	34
Bibliography.....	36
Chapter 2. Opening markets to competition.....	39
OECD market-opening reform experiences	40
The external dimension: trade and foreign direct investment liberalisation	42
Reforms “behind the border”: competition law and sectoral reforms in the OECD	47
The process of product-market regulation reform	55
Conclusion	63
Notes.....	64
Bibliography.....	65
Chapter 3. Advancing pension and labour-market reforms	69
Understanding the need for reform	70
Taking stock of reforms	73
Economic and political factors that affect the implementation of reforms	79
Empirical assessment of the determinants of labour-market reforms	85
Conclusion	91
Notes.....	92
Bibliography.....	95
Chapter 4. Making fundamental tax reform happen	101
Obstacles to tax reform: issues of policy design.....	103
Obstacles to tax reform: political economy and institutional factors	108
Strategies for successfully implementing fundamental tax reforms	112
Making fundamental tax reform happen in light of an economic crisis: concluding remarks.....	126
Notes.....	126
Bibliography.....	127
Chapter 5. Making reform happen in environmental policy.....	129
Context and instruments.....	130
Case studies in environmental policy reform.....	135
Lessons of policy reform: the institutional context	143
Dealing with those threatened by reform	146
Timing and interaction among reforms	149
The role of evidence and international organisations in supporting reforms	150
Conclusion	152
Notes.....	153
Bibliography.....	154

Chapter 6. Making reform happen in education	159
The challenge of education reform	160
Denmark: introducing a culture of evaluation	165
Finland: introducing polytechnics into the tertiary education sector.....	169
Portugal: tertiary education reform.....	173
Conclusion	178
Notes.....	179
Bibliography.....	180
Chapter 7. Effective ways to realise policy reforms in health systems.....	183
The context for health-system reform in OECD countries.....	184
Factors which can help or hinder health-system reform.....	187
Finland: improving access and managing decentralisation	193
Korea: increasing equity while containing costs.....	195
Mexico: extending insurance coverage to the poor and uninsured.....	197
Switzerland: struggling to contain costs	198
Turkey: increasing quality and efficiency	199
Synthesis: what do the case studies tell us?	201
Conclusion	204
Notes.....	205
Bibliography.....	205
Chapter 8. Modernising government.....	209
The challenge of public administration reform.....	210
Reform: the planning phase.....	214
Reform: the implementation phase	221
Sustaining public administration reform	232
Notes.....	237
Bibliography.....	237
Chapter 9. Enabling regulatory reform	239
The existence of appropriate institutions to support reform, from decision to implementation.....	241
The impact and reactions of those affected by reforms.....	252
Timing and the interactions across different policy areas	258
The role of evidence and international organisations in supporting reforms	259
Conclusions	261
Notes.....	263
Bibliography.....	265
Chapter 10. Achieving and sustaining fiscal consolidation	269
Fiscal governance, public attitudes and financial discipline: the roots of deficit bias	270
Drivers of consolidation: fiscal crises and the pursuit of sustainability	277
Factors conditioning the success of consolidation	281
Embedding fiscal discipline: the role of rules and institutions	284
Conclusion: fiscal consolidation prior to, and in the wake of, the financial crisis	288
Notes.....	291
Bibliography.....	293