Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables ix
Foreword: Reflections on the Prerequisites for a Sustainable Reconstruction in Zimbabwe
Adam Habib xi
Acknowledgments xvii
Contributor Biographies xix

1 Zimbabwe’s Recovery Path: A Conceptual Framework
Hany Besada and Jason LaChapelle 1

Part I  Peace Building and Strengthening Institutions for Good Governance
2 ZANU-PF and MDC Power-Sharing: Zimbabwe Still at a Crossroads?
Siphamandla Zondi 13
3 Reform of the Security Sector in Zimbabwe: Challenges and Opportunities
Karolina Werner and Knox Chitiyo 37
4 Zimbabwe’s Media: Between Party-State Politics and Press Freedom under Mugabe’s Rule
David Moore 55

Part II  Economic Recovery Strategies for Sustainable Development
5 A Macroeconomic Policy Framework for Economic Stabilization in Zimbabwe
John Robertson 83
6 Zimbabwe’s Hyperinflation: Can Dollarization Be the Cure?
Albert Makochekanwa and Prosper Kambarani 107
7 Agrarian Reform and Prospects for Recovery
Sam Moyo 129
CONTENTS

8 Addressing Food Security: A View from Multilateral Institutions
   Simon Pazvakavambwa 157

9 Public-Private Partnerships in the Provision of Infrastructure to Redress the Human Resource Shortages in Zimbabwe
   Helen Moatshe 181

Part III  Foreign Direct Investment and Donor Engagement
          for Socioeconomic Reconstruction

10 Multinationals and Foreign Investment in Zimbabwe:
    A Development and Human Rights Perspective
    Dianna Games 203

11 South African Corporate Expansion into Zimbabwe:
    Weathering the Storm and Reaping the Benefits
    Sanusha Naidu 229

12 Donors and the Crisis in Zimbabwe: Experiences and Lessons Learned
    Holger Bernt Hansen 247

13 South Africa’s Role in Providing Development Assistance to Zimbabwe: Policy Options and Strategies
    Steven Gruzd, George Katito, and Elizabeth Sidiropoulos 269

Index 291