Running the World's Markets

THE GOVERNANCE
OF FINANCIAL INFRASTRUCTURE

Ruben Lee
Contents

Foreword and Acknowledgments

List of Acronyms

INTRODUCTION

Nature of Governance
Concerns
Issues
Approach
Structure

PART ONE: Background Information and Analysis

CHAPTER ONE

Definitions

Infrastructure
Exchanges, Central Counterparties, and Central Securities Depositories

Conclusions

CHAPTER TWO

Market Power

Preliminary Comments
Exchanges
CCPs
CSDs

Conclusions

PART TWO: Survey Evidence

CHAPTER THREE

The Allocation of Regulatory Powers over Securities Markets

World Federation of Exchanges

International Council of Securities Associations
Infrastructure Institutions in Major Markets

Conclusions
CHAPTER FOUR
Regulation and Governance of Market Infrastructure Institutions: Global Perspective 117

The Financial Sector Assessment Program and Securities Markets Assessments 117
Observations 125
Conclusions 141

CHAPTER FIVE
Governance of Market Infrastructure Institutions: A Snapshot 145

Data 146
Analysis 151
Conclusions 164

PART THREE: Case Studies 167

CHAPTER SIX
Exchanges 169

Deutsche Börse / London Stock Exchange: Proposed iX Merger 2000 170
Euronext: Purchase of LIFFE 2001 177
Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing: The Penny Stocks Incident 2002 180
NASDAQ: Attempted Takeover of London Stock Exchange 2006–8 189
New York Stock Exchange: Resignation of Chairman-CEO 2003 194
Osaka Securities Exchange: “Murakami Fund” Purchase of Shares 2005 198

CHAPTER SEVEN
CCPs and CSDs 201

Canadian Depository for Securities: Ownership, Usage, and Board Representation to 2008 201
Deutsche Börse: Creation of Clearstream International 1999–2002 213
Euroclear: Creation, Ownership, and Board Structure up to 2006 217
LCH.Clearnet: Creation and Difficulties 2003–6 231