

117504 400 8 ✓

Consumer Policy Toolkit

C 262137

---

Table of Contents

Preface .....	7
Executive Summary .....	9
Chapter 1. The Changing Consumer and Market Landscape .....	15
Introduction .....	16
Changes in markets .....	16
Changes in consumers .....	24
Summary .....	28
References .....	28
Chapter 2. The Economics of Consumer Policy .....	31
Introduction .....	32
Conventional approach .....	33
Behavioural economics .....	42
Summary .....	47
References .....	47
Further reading .....	49
Chapter 3. Identifying and Analysing Consumer Market Problems .....	51
Introduction .....	52
What is consumer detriment? .....	52
How can markets be screened to detect problems where consumer detriment may exist? .....	58
Analysis of market problems .....	66
Summary .....	69
References .....	69
Annex 3.A1. Assessing Consumer Detriment .....	72
Chapter 4. Consumer Policy Instruments .....	77
Introduction .....	78
Consumer education and awareness .....	78
Information provision and disclosure .....	82
Contract-term regulation .....	88
Cooling-off periods .....	89
Moral suasion .....	89
Codes of conduct and trustmarks .....	90
Standards .....	93
Licensing and accreditation .....	96

Financial instruments .....	97
Prohibitions .....	97
Dispute-resolution and redress mechanisms .....	99
Enforcement strategies .....	101
Summary .....	107
References .....	107
Chapter 5. Consumer Policy Decision Making .....	111
Introduction .....	112
General and operational objectives of consumer policy .....	112
Rationale for intervening in markets .....	113
Evaluating consumer problems .....	113
Summary .....	124
References .....	125

Tables

3.1. Types of financial and non-financial detriment .....	55
3.2. Examples of consumer complaint initiatives .....	59
3.A1.1. Ways of analysing personal detriment .....	72
3.A1.2. Comparison of different survey methods .....	73
3.A1.3. Relationship of personal detriment to structural detriment .....	76
4.1. Examples of professional and occupational regulation and licensing .....	96
5.1. Frequently identified problems and policy responses .....	120

Figures

0.1. Consumer policy making steps .....	11
0.2. Consumer policy tools to target the demand and supply side of markets .....	13
1.1. Number of years it took for major technologies to reach 50% of American homes .....	18
1.2. Individuals who ordered or purchased goods or services on the Internet .....	19
1.3. Percentage of population aged 16-65 at each quantitative literacy level, 1994-1998 .....	23
1.4. Age distribution (in years) of OECD population in 1960, 2005 and 2050 .....	24
1.5. Household indebtedness in 1988, 1998 and 20081 .....	27
4.1. Types of dispute-resolution mechanisms .....	100
4.2. Enforcement pyramid .....	105
5.1. Consumer policy making steps .....	115
5.2. Consumer policy tools to target the demand and supply side of markets .....	119