Contents

Preface xvii

1 Competing Perspectives on Social Welfare 1
   Political Perspectives and Social Welfare Issues 3
   The Worldview of Conservatives, Liberals, and Radicals 6
      Attitudes toward Change 6
      Views of Human Nature 7
      Views of Individual Behavior 8
      Views of the Family 9
      Views of the Social System 10
      Views of the Government and the Economic System 12
   Political Perspectives in the Real World 20
   Political Perspectives and Social Work Values 21
      Service 22
      Social Justice 22
      Importance of Human Relationships 23
      Integrity 23
      Competence 23
   The Authors' Perspective 24

   PRACTICE TEST 26

   MySocialWorkLab 26

2 Social Welfare: Basic Concepts 27
   Stigma and Social Welfare 29
   Social Exclusion and Social Welfare 31
   Descriptive Definitions of Social Welfare 32
      Social Welfare as Nonmarket Economic Transfers 32
      Social Welfare as Services to Meet Basic Needs 33
   A Functional Definition of Social Welfare 34
      Social Structure 35
      Dependence, Interdependence, and the Social Welfare Institution 39
   A Classification of Social Welfare Services 48
   Perspectives on Social Welfare 54
      The Conservative Perspective 55
      The Liberal Perspective 55
      The Radical Perspective 56
3 Social Work as a Profession  61

Social Work and Professionalism  62
Social Work's Historical Development  64
  State Charitable Institutions  66
  The Charity Organization Society  67
  The Social Settlement  68
  Growth of a Profession  74
  Diversity and Unification  75
  The Depression and the Development of Federal Social Welfare Programs  77
  Continued Professional Growth  81
Social Work Values and Philosophical Base  83
Social Work Ethics and Ethical Dilemmas  86
  Updating a Professional Code of Ethics: Interview with a Key Player  87
Social Work Methods  90
A Model of Social Work Practice  92
Practice Settings  93
Salaries and Job Opportunities  96
Social Work Education and Knowledge for Practice  97
Current Professional Issues  97
Social Work in the Larger Field of Social Welfare  102
Perspectives on Practice  102
Conclusion  103

PRACTICE TEST  104
MySocialWorkLab  104

4 Generalist Social Work Practice  105

History and Development of Social Work Practice  106
  The Evolution of Social Work Practice  108
Development of the Concept of Generalist Social Work  116
Generalist Practice  118
  Definition  118
  Skills  121
  Relationship Between Generalist and Specialized Practice  122
Case Management: A Major Skill for Generalist Practitioners  123
  Definition  123
  History  123
5 Responses to Human Diversity

Definition of the Problem 133
Definition of Terms 143
Dynamics of Intergroup Relations 145
Perspectives 147
- The Conservative Perspective 148
- The Liberal Perspective 148
- The Radical Perspective 149
History of Intergroup Relations in the United States 149
- Social Workers, Social Welfare Institutions, and the “New Immigration” 149
- Social Workers, Social Welfare Institutions, and African Americans 151
- Social Workers, Social Welfare Institutions, and Women 155
Current Issues Regarding Social Welfare and Human Diversity 159
- Multiculturalism 159
- Immigration 161
- Affirmative Action 166
- Separatism or Integration? 168
Social Work Roles Related to Diversity 171

6 Religion and Social Work

The Religious Roots of Social Welfare 179
- Early Egyptian Roots 179
- Jewish Roots 179
- Christian Roots 181
- Muslim Roots 182
The Religious Roots of Organized Social Work 183
- Churches and the Charity Organization Society Movement 183
- Churches and the Settlement House Movement 184
- The Church and the Institutional Roots of Social Work 185
- The Secularization of Social Work 186
- The Reversal of Secularization? 188
- Current Sectarian Services 192
7 Poverty: The Central Concept 211

Poverty: Major Issues and Common Terms 214
Rich Country, Poor Country 215
   The Measurement of Economic Inequality 216
   The Distribution of Income and Wealth in the United States 218
   Trends in the Distribution of Wealth and Income 220
   Perspectives on Inequality 222
Poverty—The Dark Side of Inequality 225
   The Definition of Poverty 225
   The Official Poverty Line in the United States 231
   Issues and Perspectives in Measuring and Defining Poverty 234
   Experimental Poverty Measures 238

Conclusion 239

8 The Nature and Causes of Poverty 241

Who Are the Poor? 243
Statistical Description of the Poverty Population 243
   Race 245
   Age 245
   Region 245
   Nativity 245
   Family Type 246
   The Feminization of Poverty 246
Different Types of Poverty 246
   Three Levels of Poverty 246
   Data on Different Types of Poverty and Poverty Patterns 247

Why Are the Poor Poor? 250
   Poverty as the Result of Individual Characteristics 251
   Cultural Explanations of Poverty 256
   Critique of Cultural Explanations 260
   Structural Explanations of Poverty—Liberal Version 266
   Critique of Liberal Structural Explanations 274
Structural Explanations of Poverty—Conservative Version 275
Critique of Conservative Explanations 276

Conclusion 276

PRACTICE TEST 278
MySocialWorkLab 278

9 The Development of Antipoverty Programs 279

Historical Perspective on Antipoverty Efforts 281
  English Roots 282
  Colonial Years and the Era of the American Revolution 285
  Early Years of the Republic, 1781–1860 288
  Social Transformation, Reform, and Reaction, 1860–1930 292
  Seeds of the Reluctant Welfare State, 1930–40 298
  The Return of Prosperity, 1940–60 300
  Reform and Reaction, 1960–88 301
  A New Era for Antipoverty Policy 306

Conclusion 312

PRACTICE TEST 315
MySocialWorkLab 315

10 Child Welfare 316

Definition 318
Statistical Profile 322
Dynamics 326

Historical Perspective 332
  The Emergence of Concern for Children 332
The Development of Child Welfare Services 335

Current Issues and Trends 341
  Emphasis on Permanency Planning 342
  Emphasis on Family Preservation 344
  Reaction to Family Preservation 346
  Class Action Lawsuits on Behalf of Children in Foster Care 347
  Separation of Investigation from Service 348

Perspectives 349
  Conceptions of Appropriate Discipline 349
  The Causation of Maltreatment 351
  Rights of Children, Parents, and the Government 352

Social Work Roles 357
  Direct Services in Public Child Welfare 358
  Private Agencies 360

Conclusion 360

PRACTICE TEST 362
MySocialWorkLab 362
11 Crime and Criminal Justice 363

Perspectives on Criminal Justice 368
   The Conservative Perspective 368
   The Liberal Perspective 369
   The Radical Perspective 370

Definition 371
   Legal Definitions of Crime 371
   Crime as a Social Welfare Problem 373

Statistical Profile 377
   Problems with Crime Statistics 378
   Patterns of Crime 378
   Social Welfare and Crime 381

Dynamics 382
   Control Theories 382
   Cultural Theories 386
   Social Victim Theories 389

A Brief History of Criminal Justice 391
   Prisons—The First Reform 391
   The Indeterminate Sentence and Parole 393
   Probation 394
   The Concept of Delinquency and the Juvenile Court 395
   Criminal Justice Reform—Rhetoric and Reality 396

Current Issues 396
   Prisons 397
   Parole 398
   Probation 399
   Diversion 399
   Intermediate Sanctions 400
   Abandoning Rehabilitation? 400

Social Work Roles 401
   Treatment Programs Outside the Criminal Justice System 403
   Victim Assistance 403
   Victim–Offender Mediation 404
   Police Work as Social Work 405

Conclusion 406

PRACTICE TEST 408

MySocialWorkLab 408

12 Health Care 409

Definitions of Health and Illness 411

Statistical Picture of Health Care 412
   Health and Socioeconomic Factors 418

Dynamics of Health and Illness 421

History of Health Care 423
14 Housing, Homelessness, and Community Development 495

Definitions of the Problem 497

Actors in the U.S. Housing Situation 498
  Builders 498
  Developers 498
  Bankers 499
  Insurance Companies 499
  Government 499
  Realtors 500
  Landlords 501
  Community Groups 501
  Advocacy Organizations 501
  Research 502

Statistical Picture of Housing 502

Dynamics of Housing 505
  Commodity or Right? 506
  Residential Segregation 507

History of Housing 507
  Housing Trends from the Mid-1800s through the 1920s 508
  The Origins of Modern Housing Policy 510
  Housing Policy after the New Deal 512
  "Urban Renewal" 513
  The Age of HUD 513
  Bush II 518
  Mortgage Meltdown 519
  Obama Begins 520

Current Issues and Trends 521
  Homelessness 521
  Community Responses 522
  Design 523
  Triage 525
  Sprawl 525
  Community Development 527
  Gender and Household Stereotypes 528
  The Retreat from Public Life 530
  Hurricane Katrina 533
  Social Work and Community Development 534
  Renewing Civility 535
15 Aging 542
Definitions of Aging 544
Statistical Picture of Aging 545
Living Arrangements 548
Income 549
Health 550
Government Expenditures for the Elderly 551
Summary 551
Dynamics: Causes and Effects of Aging 551
Biological Theories 551
Social Psychological Theories of Aging 553
Sociological Theories of Aging 554
History of Aging in America 557
Current Issues and Trends 562
Government Programs for Older Americans:
• Can They Be Maintained? 562
Long-Term Care 567
Community Services for the Aging: Problems of Coordination 569
Ageism and Advocacy 570
Perspectives 573
The Conservative Perspective 573
The Liberal Perspective 573
The Radical Perspective 574
Social Work Roles 574
Conclusion 575
PRACTICE TEST 576
MySocialWorkLab 576
Conclusion 577
Notes 580
Name Index 619
Subject Index 623
Photo Credits 634