

Mass Unemployment and the State

Johannes Lindvall

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

| | |
|---|------|
| List of Figures | xi |
| List of Tables | xiii |
| Abbreviations | xiv |
| 1. The Unemployment Problem in Europe | 1 |
| Research Design | 3 |
| The Argument in Brief | 9 |
| The Indirect Effects of Employment and Unemployment | 11 |
| Political Arrangements | 16 |
| Models of Politics | 21 |
| Alternative Explanations | 24 |
| Notes on Method | 34 |
| 2. The Threat of Unemployment | 39 |
| Denmark | 42 |
| The Netherlands | 51 |
| Austria | 59 |
| Sweden | 68 |
| The Difference that Politics Makes | 77 |
| Alternative Explanations | 86 |
| Conclusions | 93 |
| 3. New Regimes | 95 |
| Denmark | 96 |
| The Netherlands | 101 |
| Austria | 105 |
| Sweden | 109 |
| Ordinary European States | 116 |
| Alternative Explanations | 132 |
| Conclusions | 143 |

Contents

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| 4. The Fact of Unemployment | 145 |
| An Overview | 146 |
| Denmark | 152 |
| The Netherlands | 156 |
| Austria | 160 |
| Sweden | 165 |
| The Politics of Labor Market Reform | 172 |
| Alternative Explanations | 180 |
| Conclusions | 184 |
| 5. Conclusions | 187 |
| Mass Unemployment and the State | 188 |
| Coordination as a Political Problem | 189 |
| In the Great Recession | 191 |
| Whatever Works | 194 |
| Bibliography | 195 |
| Appendix A. Governments | 211 |
| Appendix B. Interviews | 213 |
| Index | 219 |