Punjab Peasantry in Turmoil

Edited by
BIRINDER PAL SINGH

MANOHAR
2010
Contents

Introduction
Birinder Pal Singh 9

1. Class Conflict and Change: Profile of a Village in West Punjab
Ahmad Salim 37

2. Impact of Colonial Capitalism on the Peasantry in West Punjab
Lubna Saif 51

3. Globalization and Agriculture: Some Propositions
Aijaz Ahmad 93

4. India's Granary Devastated: Punjab under Neo-Liberal Economic Reforms
Utsa Patnaik 113

5. Whom and What to Fight?: Indian Farmers' Collective Action under Liberalization and Globalization
Staffan Lindberg 145

6. Farming Crisis and Farmers' Suicides in Punjab: An Examination of Institutional Dimensions
Sukhpal Singh 167

7. Corporate Agriculture Farming in West Punjab: A Serious Threat to Small Peasants
Zia ur Rehman 187

8. Anjuman Mazarain Punjab: The Struggle Continues
Aasim Sajjad Akhtar 209
9. Punjab Peasantry and the Green Revolution: An Activist's Perspective
   Balkar Singh Dakaunda and Pashaura Singh Sidhupur 219

10. Viability Crisis of the Small and Marginal Farmers and Response of the Farmers' Movement in Punjab
    Sucha Singh Gill 231

11. Sikh Militant Violence: A Manifestation of the Economic Crisis in Punjab
    Birinder Pal Singh 245

    Ronki Ram 265

13. Des Hoya Pardes: The Crisis of Punjabi Peasantry and Sikh Emigration Since the 1970s
    Darshan Singh Tatla 297

14. Johl Diversification Scheme: A Critique
    Harjinder Singh Shergill 323

15. Beyond 'Crisis': Rethinking Contemporary Punjab Agriculture
    Surinder Singh Jodhka 339

List of Contributors 369

Index 371