Contents

List of figures and table vi
Preface vii
Acknowledgements ix

1 Introduction 1

2 Methodology in studying corporations: breaking out of the tunnel vision 10

3 Money laundering and the social reaction: a battle instigated by power motives? 29

4 The compliance officer: functioning between the hammer and the anvil 50

5 The anti money laundering complex: a public–private approach of anti money laundering 70

6 The beauty of grey: the investigation of suspicious transactions 99

7 Supply and demand: anti money laundering by the compliance industry 125

8 The anti money laundering chain in Belgium: measuring ‘effectiveness’? 145

9 Conclusion: policing the money 154

Notes 174
Bibliography 179
Index 192