Implementing Strategic Sourcing:
A Manager’s Guide to World Class Best Practices

Christine V. Bullen,
Richard LeFave and
Gad J. Selig
Table of Contents

Forewords ................................................................. XIII
Preface ................................................................. XVII
Acknowledgements: all authors ........................................ XXII
About the Authors ...................................................... XXVI

PART I: Foundation of Strategic Sourcing ........................................ 1

1 Overview of issues and opportunities ................................. 3
   1.1 What is covered in this chapter .................................. 3
   1.2 Overview of global sourcing .................................. 3
   1.3 Forces driving global sourcing .................................. 9
   1.4 Overview of key countries and players ...................... 12
   1.5 Practices overview ........................................... 26
   1.6 Why this book? ............................................... 28
   1.7 Discussion of Terms and Definitions ....................... 29
   1.8 Summary and key lessons .................................... 31

2 Creating a sourcing strategy ........................................... 33
   2.1 What is covered in this chapter ............................... 33
   2.2 Overview ...................................................... 33
   2.3 Key principles and practices for outsourcing excellence .......... 43
   2.4 Principles and practices for aligning sourcing to the business more effectively .......... 47
   2.5 A strategy formulation framework for sourcing as part of the business plan process .......... 50
   2.6 Applying the overall strategy to specific sourcing decisions .......... 56
   2.7 Case study — major financial services organization .......... 66
   2.8 Summary and key lessons .................................... 67

3 Process for sourcing and selection of a service provider and negotiation of a sourcing agreement ........................................ 69
   3.1 What is covered in this chapter ................................ 69
   3.2 What are the phases? ......................................... 69
   3.3 Sourcing preparation .......................................... 70
   3.4 Requirements and scope ..................................... 78
   3.5 Provider selection criteria ................................... 81
   3.7 Commitment ................................................... 85
   3.8 Case study — International Telecommunications Company .... 87
   3.9 Summary and key lessons .................................... 88
Part II Management, Risk, Governance and Control

4 Sourcing management, governance and control .................................. 93
4.1 What is covered in this chapter ......................................................... 93
4.2 Understanding the models for governance ........................................ 93
4.3 Dispute resolution and escalation .................................................... 98
4.4 Reporting as part of a sourcing engagement ..................................... 98
4.5 Sourcing policies, standards and controls ........................................ 99
4.6 Sourcing metrics and Key Performance Indicators .............................. 100
4.7 Professional certifications related to sourcing and supporting disciplines ................... 102
4.8 Customer satisfaction management and measurement .......................... 104
4.9 Sourcing risks .............................................................................. 104
4.10 Case study of a global manufacturing organization ............................. 108
4.11 Summary and key lessons ............................................................. 108

5 Legal and contracting considerations .............................................. 111
5.1 What is covered in this chapter ....................................................... 111
5.2 Global sourcing agreements .......................................................... 111
5.3 Master service agreements (MSA) ................................................... 117
5.4 Risks addressed in global sourcing agreements .................................. 117
5.5 Regulations affecting private and public/government entities ............... 120
5.6 Employment law and union issues ................................................ 124
5.7 Protection of intellectual property and rights of enforcement .............. 124
5.8 Jurisdictional issues .................................................................... 126
5.9 Termination/renewal of a global sourcing engagement ....................... 126
5.10 Case study of legal issues in global sourcing ................................... 127
5.11 Summary and key lessons ............................................................ 127

Part III Organizational Change, Innovation and Relationship Management

6 Managing organizational change and transformation ......................... 131
6.1 What is covered in this chapter ....................................................... 131
6.2 An overview of innovation and transformation .................................... 131
6.3 A framework for managing innovation and transformation .................. 136
6.4 External issues ............................................................................. 154
6.5 Summary and key lessons ............................................................. 154

7 Relationship management ............................................................. 155
7.1 What is covered in this chapter ....................................................... 155
7.2 An overview of relationship management .......................................... 156
7.3 Relationship management practices ................................................ 159
7.4 Understanding the concept of “virtual distance” .................................. 166
7.5 Virtual distance mapping ............................................................... 171
7.6 Case study – global manufacturing company ..................................... 173
7.7 Summary and key lessons ............................................................. 175
11.3 The global workforce .................................................. 240
11.4 Social responsibility and sustainable practices ......................... 244
11.5 Future trends in global sourcing ..................................... 249
11.6 Summary and key lessons ............................................ 257

12 Summary, lessons learned, critical success factors and personal action plan .... 259
12.1 What is covered in this chapter ..................................... 259
12.2 Migration plan for making strategic sourcing real and sustainable .... 259
12.3 Composite checklist for implementing and sustaining strategic sourcing in organizations ............................................... 260
12.4 Lessons learned .......................................................... 276
12.5 Critical success factors .................................................. 276
12.6 Personal action plan ....................................................... 277

Bibliography ........................................................................ 279
Glossary .............................................................................. 302
Appendix A – IAOP (International Association of Outsourcing Professionals) –
  The Global 100-2009 .......................................................... 327
Appendix B – 200- Global Services 100 Companies (Global Service Media) ........ 330
Appendix C – Key Strategic Value Delivery and Execution Questions
  for Outsourcing ................................................................. 333
Appendix D - University of Alberta Outsourcing Policy .......................... 336
Appendix E – Business Case Analysis – Telecommunications Company ........... 338
Appendix F – Request for Proposal Table of Contents ............................... 344
Appendix G – Sourcing Continuity Plan and Checklist Outline ...................... 346
Appendix H – Master Service Agreement Outline, Term Sheet Outline and
  Term Sheet Agreement Example ......................................... 348
Appendix I – Sourcing Resources ............................................ 351