Contents

Notes on Contributors vi

1. Introduction: Belonging in Europe
   Caroline Bressey and Hakim Adi 1

2. Job Mobility amongst Black People in England and Wales during the Long Eighteenth Century
   Kathleen Chater 9

3. 'No Longer Strangers and Foreigners, but Fellow Citizens': The Voice and Dream of Jacobus Eliza Capitein, African Theologist in the Netherlands (1717–47)
   Dienke Hondius 27

4. Pictured at Work: Employment in Art (1800–1900)
   Jan Marsh 50

5.looking for Work: The Black Presence in Britain 1860–1920
   Caroline Bressey 60

6. John Archer and the Politics of Labour in Battersea (1906–32)
   Sean Creighton 79

7. Surviving in the Metropole: The Struggle for Work and Belonging amongst African Colonial Migrants in Weimar Germany
   Robbie Aitken 99

8. The Comintern and Black Workers in Britain and France 1919–37
   Hakim Adi 120

9. Fighting Racism: Black Soldiers and Workers in Britain during the Second World War
   Gavin Schaffer 142

Index 162