CONTENTS

Preface ix
List of Figures and Tables xi
List of Contributors xv

Introduction: Towards an International History of Insurance
- Robin Pearson 1

Part I: Non-Life Insurance

1 The Marine Insurance Market for British Textile Exports to the River Plate and Chile, c. 1810–50 – Manuel Llorca-Jaña 25
2 Actuarial Practice, Probabilistic Thinking and Actuarial Science in Private Casualty Insurance – Christofer Stadlin 37
3 The Difficulties of Spanish Insurance Companies to Modernize during the Franco Years: The Mechanization of Administrative Tasks and the Introduction of the First Computers, 1950–70 – Jerònia Pons Pons 63
4 Multilateral Insurance Liberalization, 1948–2008 – Welf Werner 85

Part II: Life, Health and Social Insurance

5 Policyholders in the Early Business of Japanese Life Assurance: A Demand-Side Study – Takau Yoneyama 103
6 Industrial Life Insurance and the Cost of Dying: The Role of Endowment and Whole Life Insurance in Anglo-Saxon and European Countries during the late Nineteenth and early Twentieth Centuries – Liselotte Eriksson 117
7 From Economic to Political Reality: Forming a Nationalized Indian Life Insurance Market – Adrian Jitschin 133
8 Life Offices to the Rescue! A History of the Role of Life Assurance in the South African Economy during the Twentieth Century – Grietjie Verhoef 145
9 Competing Globalizations: Controversies between Private and Social Insurance at International Organizations, 1900–60 – Martin Lengwiler 167
The Development of International Insurance

Notes 187
Works Cited 229
Index 247