Anti-Monopoly Law and Practice in China

H. Stephen Harris, Jr.
Peter J. Wang
Yizhe Zhang
Mark A. Cohen
Sébastien J. Evrard
Contents

ABOUT THE AUTHOR xi
FOREWORD xiii
PREFACE xv
INTRODUCTION 1

CHAPTER 1: Legislative History of the Anti-Monopoly Law 7

I. A Brief Overview of the Context and History Behind the Drafting of the Anti-Monopoly Law 8

II. The Anti-Monopoly Law: Background and Substantive Provisions 20

   A. The Objectives of the Law 20
   B. Extraterritorial Reach of the Law 23
   C. Application of the Law to Regulated Sectors of the Economy 24
   D. Market Definition 27
   E. Prohibition of Concerted Action 28
   F. Abuse of Dominance 31
   G. Merger Review 37
   H. Administrative Abuses 41
   I. The Anti-Monopoly Enforcement Authority 45
   J. Legal Liability 51
   K. Abuses of Intellectual Property Rights and Other Supplementary Provisions 55

CHAPTER 2: Monopoly Agreements 57

I. Scope of Application of Chapter 2 of the AML 61

   A. The Notion of an “Undertaking” 61
   B. The Notion of “Agreement” 62

      1. Tacit Collusion as an “Agreement” under the AML 63
      2. Tacit Acquiescence in Vertical Relationships 64
      3. Intraenterprise Agreements 65
   C. The Notion of a “Restriction of Competition” 66
   D. The Element of Intent 67
II. Prohibited Monopoly Agreements Between Competitors
   A. Price-Fixing Agreements
   B. Agreements to Restrict Output
   C. Market Allocation Agreements
   D. Agreements to Restrict the Purchase or Development of New Technology or New Facilities
   E. Joint Boycotts
   F. Other Monopoly Agreements as Recognized by the AMEA
   G. Bid-Rigging

III. Prohibited Vertical Agreements
   A. Resale Price Maintenance
   B. Other Vertical Agreements

IV. Exemptions for Agreements with Beneficial Purposes
   A. R&D Agreements
   B. Agreements Enhancing Efficiency or Unifying Specifications and Standards
   C. Agreements Involving Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises
   D. Agreements Maintaining the Public Welfare
   E. Crisis Cartels
   F. Export Cartels
   G. Other Exemptions Stipulated by Law or the State Council

CHAPTER 3: Abuse of Dominance

I. Assessment of a Dominant Market Position
   A. Market Definition
   B. Definition of Dominance
   C. Presumptions of Dominance Based on Market Shares
   D. Factors to Be Considered in Determining Whether a Firm Has a Dominant Market Position

II. Conduct that May Constitute Abuse of a Dominant Market Position
   A. Unfairly High Prices and Unfairly Low Prices
   B. Selling at Prices Below Cost (Predatory Pricing)
   C. Refusals to Deal
   D. Exclusive Dealing
   E. Tying and Imposing Other Unreasonable Trading Conditions
   F. Discriminatory Treatment, Including Price Discrimination
   G. Abuses of a Dominant Market Position Involving Intellectual Property

III. Court Decisions

CHAPTER 4: Merger Control

I. Introduction

II. The Scope and Reach of China's Merger Control Scheme
   A. Covered Transactions
B. Extraterritorial Jurisdiction and Nexus 131
C. Industry-Specific and National Security Review 133

III. Thresholds and Eligible Transactions 138
A. Mandatory Review Thresholds 138
B. Discretionary and Voluntary Reviews 142
C. Penalties for Failure to File 144

IV. Review Process 145
A. Filing 147
1. Who Files and When to File 147
2. Filing Attempts and Acceptance 148
B. Initial Review Period 149
C. Further Review Periods 150

V. Detailed Information Requirements 151
A. Initial Merger Filing 151
B. Investigation 153
C. Third Parties 154

VI. Substantive Standards 154
A. Overall Review Criteria 154
B. Relevant Markets and Market Definition 155
C. Theories of Anticompetitive Effects 158
D. Procompetitive Effects and Efficiencies 164

VII. MOFCOM Decisions 166
A. Approvals 166
B. Denials 167
C. Conditional Approvals 167
D. Appeal 171

VIII. Conclusion 173

CHAPTER 5: Cases Involving Government-Related Entities 175

I. Administrative Monopolies 177
A. The Treatment of Administrative Monopoly Under the AML 181
B. Procedural Rules Addressing Administrative Monopoly 183
1. Jurisdiction of SAIC and NDRC 183
2. SAIC Procedural Rules 184
3. NDRC Rules 188
C. Jurisdiction in the Courts 188

II. State-Owned Enterprises 190
A. History and Regulation of SOEs 191
1. The Role of SOEs in a “Socialist Market Economy” 191
2. SASAC Oversight of SOEs 193
B. Application of the AML to SOEs 194
C. Actual AML Enforcement Against SOEs 197
1. Merger Control 198
2. Monopoly Agreements and Abuses of Dominance 199
CHAPTER 6: Intellectual Property Rights Under the AML

I. China's Increased Focus on Intellectual Property Rights
   213
II. Abuses of IP Rights: Article 55 of the AML
    A. Rights Covered by Article 55 of the AML
    216
    B. The Meaning of Article 55 of the AML
       1. A Safe Harbor for Some IP Exploitation
       220
       2. Abuse/Misuse of IP Rights
       220
III. Technology Transfer Agreements
    A. Agreements Between Competitors
       (Article 13 of the AML)
       223
    B. Agreements Between Noncompetitors
       (Article 14 of the AML)
       226
IV. Refusals to License Intellectual Property Rights
    227
V. Technology Pools and Standards
   A. Technology Pools
   232
   B. Standard-Settings Agreements
      235
      1. Standards Setting Outside the AML Framework
      235
      2. Standards Under the AML
      243
VI. Abuse of Technological Protection Measures
    245
VII. Anticompetitive IP Litigation
    250
VIII. Enforcement and Remedies
    255

CHAPTER 7: The Enforcement Agencies: AMC and AMEA

I. Enforcement Structure
   263
   A. The Anti-Monopoly Commission
   266
   B. The Anti-Monopoly Enforcement Authorities: MOFCOM, SAIC, and NDRC
      267
      1. MOFCOM
      270
      2. SAIC
      273
      3. NDRC
      277
   C. Other Relevant Government Agencies
      281
II. Powers and Duties of the AMEA
    282
    A. Investigative Powers
    282
    B. Commitments
    285
    C. Decisions
    286
    D. Penalties
    287
    E. Leniency
    290
    F. Malfeasance by Enforcement Personnel
    294
III. Rights of Persons Under Investigation
    295
    A. The Right to Be Heard
    295
B. Confidentiality 295
C. Attorney-Client Privilege 296
IV. Administrative Reconsideration of AMEAs' Decisions 296
V. International Cooperation and Coordination of Anti-Monopoly Authorities 297
A. Bilateral Cooperation and Exchanges 297
B. Multilateral Cooperation and International Organizations 299

CHAPTER 8: The Role of the Courts in AML Enforcement 301
I. The PRC Judicial System 303
A. Overview 303
B. The Structure of the Court System 305
C. Procedural Issues 307
1. Case Acceptance 307
2. Jurisdictional Issues 307
3. Limitations Period 312
4. Evidence and Burdens of Proof 313
5. Expert and Economic Evidence 315
II. Basis for Judicial Enforcement of Anti-Monopoly Matters 316
A. Private Civil Enforcement 316
1. Civil AML Litigation 316
2. Civil Litigation Under Competition-Related Laws 320
B. Administrative Litigation 322
1. Judicial Review of AMEA Enforcement 322
2. Private Actions Against Administrative Monopolies 325
C. Criminal Prosecution 326

CHAPTER 9: Competition-Related Laws Other than the AML 329
I. The Anti-Unfair Competition Law 331
A. Introduction 331
B. Competition-Related Provisions of the AUCL 333
1. General Provision 333
2. Abuse of Monopoly Position to Restrict Competition by Public Utility Companies and Other Legal Monopolies 335
3. Below-Cost Selling 338
4. Tying 339
5. Bid-Rigging 342
6. Abuses of Administrative Monopoly 342
C. Enforcement of the AUCL 344
1. Burden of Proof 345
2. Statistics 345
D. Relationship Between the AUCL and Other Laws 348
Contents

II. The Price Law and Regulations 350
   A. The Price Law 351
   B. Penalties for Violations of the Price Law 352
   C. Other Implementing Regulations and Rules Under the Price Law 353
   D. Administrative Enforcement of the Price Law 355

III. Bidding Law 357
   A. Provisions of the Bidding Law 358
   B. Enforcement 359

IV. Contract Law 361

V. Foreign Trade Law 365
   A. Foreign Trade Law 365
   B. Regulation on Administration of Import and Export of Technologies (RAIET) 367

VI. Patent Law 368

TABLE OF ANNEXES 371

TABLE OF CASES 555

INDEX 561