Industrial Clusters and Micro and Small Enterprises in Africa

From Survival to Growth

Yutaka Yoshino, Editor

A report based on joint research by the World Bank, the Japan International Cooperation Agency, the Foundation for Advanced Studies on International Development, and economists affiliated with the African Economic Research Consortium.

THE WORLD BANK
Washington, D.C.
Contents

Foreword xiii
Acknowledgments xv
Abbreviations xix

Overview 1
Performance Gaps between Domestically Owned and Foreign-Owned Firms in Africa 2
Industrial Clusters in Africa 5
Growth Constraints for Survival Clusters 6
Building Managerial Human Capital 8
Implications for Policies 9

Chapter 1 Introduction 11
Dualistic Structure of the Private Sector in Africa 13
Performance Gap between Domestically Owned and Foreign-Owned Enterprises in Africa 16
Notes 23
References 24
Chapter 2 Unbundling Foreign-Domestic Performance
   Gaps in Africa's Private Sector 25
   Productivity Gap 26
   Market Access: Participation in Nonlocal Markets 34
   Notes 38
   References 39

Chapter 3 Industrial Clusters as Natural Agglomerations of Micro and Small Enterprises: A Conceptual Framework 41
   Concept of Clusters 44
   Economic Geography of Industrial Clusters 47
   Beyond Transportation Costs: Market and Government Failures, Transaction Costs,
      and Industrial Clusters 49
   External Linkages and Cluster Competitiveness 51
   Internal Dynamics and External Linkages in Industrial Clusters around the World 52
   Role of Clusters in Micro and Small Enterprise
      Development 59
   Notes 61
   References 62

Chapter 4 Industrial Clusters and Business Performance of Micro and Small Enterprises in Africa 65
   Clustering and Business Performance: Natural
      Industrial Clusters in Light Manufacturing
      Industries 68
   Nontraditional, Nonmanufacturing Clusters
      in Africa 82
   Notes 88
   References 89

Chapter 5 Location, Market Access, and Business
   Performance of Cluster-Based Enterprises 91
   Location Choice of Micro and Small Light
      Manufacturers 92
   Micro-Level Choice of Location and Business
      Performance: Findings from the Arusha
      Furniture Cluster Case Study 94
Appendix 4  Format of Managerial Skills Training Programs 165
Notes 168
References 168

Appendix 5  Average Treatment of Treated and DID Matching Estimator 169
References 171

Appendix 6  List of Background Papers and Boxes Contributed for the Study 173
Index 175

Boxes
2.1 World Bank Enterprise Surveys 26
2.2 Blinder-Oaxaca Decomposition 32
3.1 Typology of Industrial Clusters 45
3.2 Clusters and the Environment 57
4.1 Labor Productivity of Cluster-Based Enterprises and National Averages 69
4.2 Clusters and Gender 80
4.3 IT and IT-Enabled Services Clusters in Africa and around the World 86
4.4 Tourism Cluster in Rwanda 87
5.1 Subclusters within the Arusha Furniture Cluster in Tanzania 96
6.1 The Olezoa Furniture Cluster in Yaoundé 104
7.1 History of Suame Magazine 115
7.2 History of Kariobangi Light Industries 116
7.3 Challenges among Micro and Small Enterprises in Suame Magazine 122
8.1 Interface between Government Policies to Support Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises and Strategies to Develop Clusters in Cameroon 145
8.2 Interface between Government Policies to Support Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises and Strategies to Develop Clusters in Kenya 146
8.3 Interface between Government Policies to Support Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises and Strategies to Develop Clusters in Ghana 148