38th ECONOMICS CONFERENCE 2010

Central Banking after the Crisis
Contents

Ewald Nowotny
Opening Remarks 4

Werner Faymann
After the Crisis: Challenges Ahead 14

Session 1: Financial Crisis Management and Central Bank Independence

Jean-Claude Trichet
The ECB's Response to the Recent Tensions in Financial Markets 20

Michael Bordo
Central Bank Independence and Financial Crises in History 28

Panel I: Safeguarding Price Stability and Financial Stability: Complementary or Contradictory Mandates for a Central Bank?

Ernest Gnan
Are Price Stability and Financial Stability Complementary or Contradictory Mandates? Four Issues 38

Martin Čiháčk
Price Stability, Financial Stability, and Central Bank Independence 44

Petra M. Geraats
Price and Financial Stability: Dual or Duelling Mandates? 56

Klaus Liebscher Award
Klaus Liebscher Award for Scientific Work on European Monetary Union and Integration Issues by Young Economists 64

Session 2: Financial Crises, Monetary Policy Strategies and Instruments

Wolfgang Duchatczek
Introductory Remarks 68

Dietrich Domanski
Exit from Unconventional Monetary Policy Measures and the Future of Central Bank Operational Frameworks 72

Stefan Gerlach
Monetary Policy after the Crisis 84

Panel II: How Much Risk Can a Central Bank Assume?

Wolfgang Münchau
How Much Risk Can a Central Bank Assume? 96

Anne Sibert
Accountability and the ECB 102
Dinner Speech
Josef Pröll
Central Banking after the Crisis

Session 3:
Central Banking, Financial Stability and Regulation

Andreas Ittner
Central Banking, Financial Stability and Regulation

Giovanni Carosio
Financial Stability and Macro-Prudential Supervision: Challenges for Central Banks

Elena Carletti
Financial Regulation Going Forward

Panel III:
How Should We Deal with Large Financial Institutions in a Crisis?

Urs Birchler
How Should We Deal with Large Financial Institutions in a Crisis?

Contributors