Negotiating at the World Trade Organization

Lessons from the Commonwealth 2

Vinod Rege

B 375468

COMMONWEALTH SECRETARIAT
Contents

Preface iii
Acknowledgements v
Abbreviations xi
Summary and Author’s Concluding Observations 1

Part One: The WTO rules-based system and the Commonwealth Project
1. What is the WTO and What Does It Do? 13
2. The Project and the Modalities Adopted 33

Part Two: Assistance provided on subjects in the agenda of the Doha Round
3. The Doha Round of Negotiations 45
4. Liberalisation of Trade in Agricultural Products 51
5. Agricultural Commodity Issues 67
6. Liberalisation of Trade in Non-agricultural Products 77
7. Liberalisation of Trade in Services 97
8. The Role of Industrial Policy in Attaining the Development Objectives of the Doha Round 115
9. Agreement on TRIPS and Public Health 135
10. Trade Facilitation 153
   Annex: Examples of customs fees and charges levied by selected developing countries 185

Negotiating at the World Trade Organization vii
Part Three: Assistance provided to individual delegations and in the pre-Doha period

11. Assistance Provided to Individual Delegations 195

Glossary 209

Index 213

Negotiating at the World Trade Organization