The Government of Chronic Poverty
From the politics of exclusion to the politics of citizenship?

Edited by
Sam Hickey

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK
Contents

1. The Government of Chronic Poverty: From Exclusion to Citizenship?
   Sam Hickey
   1

2. A Relational Approach to Durable Poverty, Inequality and Power
   David Mosse
   18

3. Grounding ‘Responsibilisation Talk’: Masculinities, Citizenship and HIV in Cape Town, South Africa
   Christopher J. Colvin, Steven Robins and Joan Leavens
   41

4. Rectifying the Anti-Politics of Citizen Participation: Insights from the Internal Politics of a Subaltern Community in Nepal
   Katsuhiko Masaki
   58

5. Governing Chronic Poverty under Inclusive Liberalism: The Case of the Northern Uganda Social Action Fund
   Frederick Golooba-Mutebi and Sam Hickey
   78

6. Making Development Agents: Participation as Boundary Object in International Development
   Maia Green
   102

7. School Exclusion as Social Exclusion: the Practices and Effects of a Conditional Cash Transfer Programme for the Poor in Bangladesh
   Naomi Hossain
   126

8. ‘We Have Always Lived Here’: Indigenous Movements, Citizenship and Poverty in Argentina
   Matthias vom Hau and Guillermo Wilde
   145

   A.J. Bebbington, D. Mitlin, J. Mogaladi, M. Scurrah and C. Bielich
   166

Index
   189