

FIRST EDITION

A Guide to Open Innovation and Crowdsourcing

Expert tips
and advice

PAUL SLOANE

LONDON PHILADELPHIA NEW DELHI

Contents lib

List of contributors xi

Foreword by Henry Chesbrough xvii

Introduction – The Trend to Open Innovation 1

Paul Sloane

01 What is Open Innovation? 5

Julian Keith Loren

Where did Open Innovation come from? 7

Multiple facets of Open Innovation 8

Open Innovation implementations 10

What else is Open Innovation? 14

02 What is Crowdsourcing? 15

Renee Hopkins

The history of crowds 16

Crowdsourcing can disrupt 16

Models for crowdsourcing 17

How to crowdsource 19

Conclusion 21

03 Open Innovation Typology 22

Jeffrey Phillips

Suggestive/Participative 25

Suggestive/Invitational 28

Directed/Invitational 30

Directed/Participative 33

Conclusion 35

04 The Importance of a Strategic Approach to Open Innovation 37

Braden Kelley

Beyond your four walls 37

Should Open Innovation live in R&D or marketing? 37

Innovation is social 38

A strategic approach to Open Innovation	39
A holistic approach to Open Innovation	40
Mobilizing for success	41
Bringing it all together	42

05 Start at the End 43

David Simoes-Brown and Roland Harwood

Measuring shared rewards	43
More effective collaborations	47

06 Institutionalizing Open Innovation 50

Steven Goers PhD

Making the case	50
Defining Open Innovation	51
Start small, get focused, build capability, get some wins and then expand	52
Institutionalizing Open Innovation	55

07 The Strategic Context for Open Innovation 60

Andrew Gaule

Scouting for technology but we need effective communication	61
How to focus your innovation efforts	61

08 Leadership Issues and Challenges in the OI World 65

Matthew Heim

Common challenges	66
Key considerations and best practices to enhance success	69
Conclusion	74

09 Motivating the Crowd to Participate in Your Innovation Initiative 76

Hutch Carpenter

The goal of the initiative	76
Motivations	77
Conclusion	84

10 How LG Electronics Is Transforming Itself into an Innovation Company 85

Christopher J Ryu

Vision	85
Approach	85

Brand 86
Organizational structure 86
Tools 87
Process 87
Long journey 90

11 Bridging Open Innovation Gaps 91

Andrea Meyer and Dana Meyer

External and valuation gaps 91
IP Gaps 92
Internal gaps 94
Conclusion 97

12 Soft Skills for Open Innovation Success 98

Gail Martino and John Bartolone

Introduction 98
The OI professional 98
OI soft vs hard skills 99
Why it matters 99
Soft skills 100
Where are these people? 102
Summary 105

13 Open Innovation with Customers: Co-creation at Threadless 106

Frank Piller

Challenges of identifying what customers want 106
Co-creation at Threadless 107
When customer co-creation makes sense 109
Implementing co-creation 110

14 Introducing Open Innovation at Intuit 112

Jan Bosch and Petra M Bosch-Sijtsema

Setting the context 112
Internal innovation culture at Intuit 113
Introducing OI at Intuit 115
Staged model for introducing OI 116
Reflection and generalization 119

15 Problem description in Open Problem Solving: How to overcome cognitive and psychological roadblocks 121

Klaus-Peter Speidel

Open Innovation vs Open Problem Solving 121

From 'define and try' to 'describe and search' 121

Psychological roadblocks in OPS 123

Describing a problem for others to solve 125

16 Building the Culture for Open Innovation and Crowdsourcing 132

Cathryn Hrudicka, Gwen Ishmael and Boris Pluskowski

Positive culture traits 132

Common cultural blocks 134

Initiating an OI project 136

Steps to take 137

17 Overcoming Resistance to OI 141

Todd Boone

Status quo to modularity 141

Breaking out of the comfort zone: modularity to OI 142

How to get there 143

In closing 147

18 Managing Legal and IP Issues 148

Denys Resnick

Defining IP and confidentiality in the context of an OI strategy 148

Managing vs protecting IP 149

Creating an OI IP strategy 150

Weaving together the threads of IP, confidentiality and timing 153

Moving through the stages of OI 153

Bringing it all together 159

19 Fast, Open and Global – The future of innovation 160

Stefan Lindegaard

Fast as in fail fast and fail often 160

Global as in innovation happens anywhere 162

20 The Power of Open Collaboration in Connecting People 164

Pekka Pohjakallio and Pia Erkinheimo

- Arki – inspired by everyday life 164
- People driving innovation 165
- Innovation at Nokia 165
- OI driving new opportunities 167
- Global innovation 168
- Innovation and collaboration, driven by people 169

21 Common Mistakes and Stress Points 170

Andrew Gaule

- Defining your innovation strategy 170
- Identifying and selecting innovations 171
- Turning promising ideas into commercial realities 174
- Be open to external partnering 176
- Extracting value from every idea 177
- Conclusion 178

22 Attracting Open Innovation Partners – Portals, publicity and people 179

Kevin McFathing

- Why is attraction important? 179
- How attractive a partner are you? 179
- Partnering in action 180
- The large vs small dynamic 187
- The importance of people and relationships 187
- Summary 187

23 Multistep Dynamic Expert Sourcing: A novel approach for open innovation platforms 189

Albert Meige and Boris Golden

- Where OI crowdsourcing platforms fail 190
- A disruptive approach: Multistep Dynamic Expert Sourcing (MDES) 192
- Conclusion 196

24 The Acceleration of Innovation 197*Clinton Bonner*

Bringing 'fail' into the fold 197

What can be accelerated? 197

Crowdsourcing, collaboration and co-creation 198

One actionable output vs 12,000 ideas 198

The results 202

25 Envisioning the Future of Innovation 203*Stephen Shapiro*

Why Einstein was right 204

Defining good challenges 204

Why Edison was wrong 206

Integration and commercialization are key 207

Recommended Reading 208*Notes and References* 209*Index* 213