Trade Costs and Facilitation: Open Trade and Economic Development
Volume I

Edited by
Jean-Christophe Maur
Senior Economist, World Bank Institute, The World Bank, USA

and

John S. Wilson
Lead Economist, The World Bank, USA

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE GLOBAL TRADING SYSTEM AND THE WTO

An Elgar Research Collection
Cheltenham, UK • Northampton, MA, USA
Contents

Acknowledgements ix
Introduction Jean-Christophe Maur and John S. Wilson xi

PART I THEORY OF TRADE COSTS

PART II EMPIRICAL EVIDENCE: DATA AND GLOBAL VIEW OF TRANSACTION COSTS

A How Do Trade Transaction Costs Matter in General?

B Recent Detailed Evidence on the Prevalence of Transaction Costs

C Empirical Evidence: Ex Ante Assessment and Computable General Equilibrium Modeling

D Time Factors