Regional Disparities in India’s Socio-economic Development

Edited by

Kanak Kanti Bagchi
Professor, Department of Economics,
University of North Bengal, West Bengal.

New Century Publications
New Delhi, India
Contents

About the Book ................................................................. v
Editor's Profile ................................................................. vi
Contributors and Their Affiliations ................................. ix-x
Editor's Note on the Book ................................................ xix-xviii

1. Inter-State Disparities in India under Liberalized Regime
   Kulwant Singh Phull ..................................................... 1-17

2. Convergence, Dispersal and Devolution: Need for Region-specific Approach
   Mona Khare ................................................................. 18-30

3. Inter-Regional Disparities in India
   S.K. Dhage, B.D. Khedkar and B.G. Lobo ......................... 31-41

4. Growing Regional Disparities in India
   Shaukat Haseen ............................................................. 42-50

5. Differentials in Agricultural Productivity in India
   Sukhjeet K. Saran and Mini Goyal .................................. 51-73

6. Regional Disparities in Agriculture Infrastructure
   R.K. Panda ................................................................. 74-83

7. Variations in Agricultural Development of Maharashtra
   Bagade Dattatray S. ...................................................... 84-101

8. Industrial Disparities in India: A Case Study of Uttar Pradesh vis-à-vis Maharashtra and Gujarat
   Satya Dev Singh and Rajesh Kumar Singh ......................... 102-110
9. Regional Disparities in Secondary Education in India.................................................................111-131
   Vinayak Kant Mishra and Prahlad Kumar

10. Inter-State Disparities in Technical Education in India..........................................................132-144
    Nisha and Prahlad Kumar

11. Educational Disparities in Orissa.................................................................145-166
    S.N. Tripathy

12. Infant and Child Mortality in India: Inter-regional Variations...........................................167-186
    Bipul Malakar and Mantu Bose

13. Problem of Regional Imbalances: An Analysis of Social Sector........................................187-200
    Dastgir Alam

14. Finance Commission Transfers and Inter-State Imbalances..............................................201-224
    V.P. Gupta and Sneh Gupta

Index........................................................................................................................................225-232