PAPUA ROAD MAP

Negotiating the past, improving the present and securing the future

Editor:
Muridan S. Widjojo

Translator and English editor:
Sherry Kasman Entus

Writers:
Muridan S. Widjojo
Adriana Elisabeth
Amirudin Al Rahab
Cahyo Pamungkas
Rosita Dewi

INSTITUTE OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES
Singapore

YAYASAN
PUSTAKA OBOR INDONESIA

Jakarta, 2010

B 377294
TABLE OF CONTENTS

FOREWORD
By Minister of Defense of Republic of Indonesia, Prof Dr Juwono Sudarsono vii
Head of LIPI’s Speech on the Launch of ‘Papua Road Map’ Prof Dr Umar Anggara Jenie ix
Head of Indonesian Institute of Sciences (LIPI) xi

Acknowledgements
xi

Glossary of Indonesian Terms and Acronyms
xv

Foreword: Road Map to a New Papua
xxi

LIPI Foreword
xxxi

Chapter one
The Mapping Endeavour: Reading the Papua Conflict 1

- Introduction 3
- Sources of the Papua Conflict 6
- Actors, Roles and Interests 18
- Otsus and Contemporary Issues 27
- Conclusion 35

Chapter two
Recognition: Empowering Indigenous Papuans 37

- Introduction 40
- The Significance of Recognition 40
- Affirmative Policy 44
- Indigenous Papuans and Papuan-ness 47
- The Antagonism of Papuan versus Amber 49
- The History of Integration without the Indigenous Papuans 51
- Papuanizing the Bureaucracy 52
- Accommodating the Symbols of Papua 54
- Strengthening Human Resources 61
- Building a New Class of Indigenous Papuan Entrepreneurs 66
- Papuan Supremacy in Sports 70
- The Role of Customary Institutions 74