

Europe and the Financial Crisis

Edited by

Pompeo Della Posta

Associate Professor in Economic Policy, University of Pisa, Italy and

Leila Simona Talani

Associate Professor (Reader) in International Political Economy, King's College London, UK

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

| | |
|---|-----------|
| List of Figures and Tables | x |
| Foreword and Acknowledgements | xiii |
| Notes on the Contributors | xiv |
| Introduction | 1 |
| Pompeo Della Posta | |
| PART I EUROPE AND THE FINANCIAL CRISIS: GENERAL ISSUES | |
| 1 The Regulation of the European Financial Market after the Crisis | 9 |
| Pedro Gustavo Teixeira | |
| Introduction | 9 |
| The financial crisis: disintegrating markets? | 9 |
| The new European Supervisory Authorities | 13 |
| The establishment of a European Systemic Risk Board | 17 |
| Conclusion: the further development of European integration | 20 |
| 2 The Monetary Policy Response to the Financial Crisis in the Euro Area and in the United States: A Comparison | 28 |
| Domenica Tropeano | |
| Introduction | 28 |
| The Federal Reserve's policy response to the crisis | 30 |
| The ECB's response | 34 |
| The current state of the financial markets in the US | 37 |
| The current situation of the financial markets in the euro area | 39 |
| Concluding remarks | 42 |
| 3 Real Divergence Across Europe and the Limits of EMU Macroeconomic Governance | 46 |
| Elisabetta Croci Angelini and Francesco Farina | |
| Introduction | 46 |
| The evolution of real divergence across EMU economies (1979–2009) | 48 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Within-EMU macroeconomic imbalances: an econometric assessment | 54 |
| Macroeconomic imbalances within and between currency areas | 62 |
| Alternative views on EMU macroeconomic governance | 64 |
| Conclusions | 69 |
| 4 The Euro in the International Monetary System after the Global Financial and Economic Crisis and after the European Public Debt Crisis | 74 |
| Pompeo Della Posta | |
| Introduction | 74 |
| Reasons for the creation of the euro | 74 |
| The performance of the euro during its first decade of existence and the international role of the dollar | 77 |
| The consequences of the global financial and economic crisis in Europe | 79 |
| What future for the international monetary system? | 81 |
| Concluding remarks | 86 |
| 5 Europe in Crisis: More Political Integration in the Eurozone is the Solution | 91 |
| Teodoro Dario Togati | |
| Introduction | 91 |
| Why is standard macroeconomic theory an obstacle to political integration? | 94 |
| Political union calls for an alternative theoretical perspective | 99 |
| Conclusion | 103 |
| 6 Economic Crisis and Industrial Policy in the Union: The Need for a Long-term Vision of Industrial Development | 107 |
| Patrizio Bianchi and Sandrine Labory | |
| Introduction | 107 |
| Structure of European industry | 108 |
| The EU as a world economic power | 111 |
| The Lisbon Strategy: an industrial policy for the coherence of the Union at a time of deep transformations | 115 |
| Industrial policy as a long-term vision of development | 117 |
| Concluding remarks | 121 |

PART II THE IMPACT OF THE FINANCIAL CRISIS ON SINGLE EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

| | |
|---|------------|
| 7 The UK and the Euro in the Aftermath of the Global Financial Crisis | 127 |
| Leila Simona Talani | |
| Introduction | 127 |
| The case for the UK to join the EMU after the global financial crisis | 127 |
| Why did the UK not join EMU in the first place? | 133 |
| Conclusion | 138 |
| 8 The Greek Debt Crisis: Causes, Policy Responses and Consequences | 143 |
| Antimo Verde | |
| Introduction | 143 |
| The Greek crisis: the immediate causes and catalyst factors | 144 |
| Structural causes | 149 |
| Policy responses | 150 |
| The EU–IMF Greek rescue plan | 151 |
| German measures on short selling and credit default swaps | 152 |
| The consequences for EMU | 152 |
| The Greek crisis and the Stability and Growth Pact | 152 |
| ECB independence and the no-bailout clause | 155 |
| The Greek crisis and the ‘two-speed EMU’: the restricted solidarity hypothesis | 157 |
| Some concluding remarks | 161 |
| 9 From Miracle to Crash? The Impact of the Global Financial Crisis on Spain | 165 |
| Ramon Pacheco Pardo | |
| Introduction | 165 |
| Economic growth and modernization in the 1970s and 1980s | 166 |
| The Socialists in power and the boon of EEC membership | 168 |
| Economic recession and boom in the 1990s and into the twenty-first century | 169 |
| The conservatives in power | 171 |
| The global financial crisis and Spain | 173 |
| The socialist government and the crisis, step one: denial | 174 |

| | | |
|-----------|--|------------|
| | The socialist government and the crisis, step two: stern action | 177 |
| | Conclusion | 179 |
| 10 | France: Steering Out of Crisis? | 183 |
| | Susan Milner | |
| | Introduction | 183 |
| | French banking system | 184 |
| | Economic outlook in 2010: a fragile recovery | 186 |
| | Social and employment policy | 190 |
| | Conclusion | 194 |
| 11 | The Effects of the Financial Crisis on the Italian and US Labour Markets | 198 |
| | Tindara Addabbo, Fahima Aziz and Jack Reardon | |
| | Introduction | 198 |
| | Similarities and differences between the US and Italian labour markets | 198 |
| | The effect of the crisis on the Italian and US labour markets | 200 |
| | The experience of unemployment in Italy and in the US | 207 |
| | The costs of being unemployed in the US in terms of income poverty | 209 |
| | Concluding remarks | 214 |
| 12 | Reaching Out in a Time of Crisis: How External Anchors Assist Southeastern Europe | 218 |
| | Jens Bastian | |
| | Introduction | 218 |
| | The macroeconomic situation | 219 |
| | External anchors to the rescue | 220 |
| | The Romanian case | 221 |
| | The Serbian case | 222 |
| | Can Albania and Bulgaria be considered outliers? | 223 |
| | Is the crisis assistance discretionary, tilted towards EU members? | 225 |
| | Initiatives to support financial sector stability in Southeastern Europe | 228 |
| | Cooperation between multilateral lenders and commercial banks | 231 |
| | Exit strategies and shaping the reform agenda? The role of external anchors | 233 |
| | Conclusion | 237 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| 13 Russia in Crisis: Implications for Europe | 242 |
| Serena Giusti | |
| Introduction | 242 |
| Russia and the crisis | 242 |
| The effects on Russia's external dimension | 245 |
| The crisis and the post-Soviet space | 249 |
| Conclusion | 253 |
| Conclusion | 258 |
| Leila Simona Talani | |
| Index | 261 |