QUESTIONING FINANCIAL GOVERNANCE FROM A FEMINIST PERSPECTIVE

Edited by Brigitte Young, Isabella Bakker and Diane Elson
CONTENTS

List of illustrations ix
List of contributors xi
Acknowledgements xv

Introduction 1
Brigitte Young, Isabella Bakker and Diane Elson

1 Macroeconomic regimes in OECD countries and the interrelation with gender orders 11
Friederike Maier

2 Changing macroeconomic governance and gender orders: the case of Canada 38
Isabella Bakker

3 EU macroeconomic governance and gender orders: the case of Austria 51
Elisabeth Klatzer and Christa Schlager

4 Taxation, employment, and gender: the case of state taxes in the USA 74
Elissa Braunstein and Caren Grown

5 Central banks, employment, and gender in developing countries 90
Elissa Braunstein and James Heintz
6 IMF policies and gender orders: the case of the Poverty Reduction and Growth Facility 110
Diane Elson and Tonia Warnecke

7 The role of gender in governance of the financial sector 132
Helene Schuberth and Brigitte Young

8 Macroeconomic governance, gendered inequality, and global crises 155
Stephen Gill and Adrienne Roberts

Index 173