Contents

FOREWORD

_Cynthia “Mil” Duncan_  ix

Acknowledgments  xiii

Introduction

_Kristin E. Smith and Ann R. Tickamyer_  1

Section 1: Changing Economic Opportunities and Changing Roles

1  Rural Economic Restructuring: Implications for Children, Youth, and Families
   _Daniel T. Lichter and Deborah Roempke Graefe_  25

2  Employment Hardship Among Rural Men
   _Leif Jensen and Eric B. Jensen_  40

3  Changing Roles: Women and Work in Rural America
   _Kristin E. Smith_  60

4  Men Without Sawmills: Job Loss and Gender Identity in Rural America
   _Jennifer Sherman_  82
Section 2: Family Change, Economic Hardship, and Family Adaptive Strategies

5 Economic Restructuring and Family Structure Change, 1980 to 2000: A Focus on Female-Headed Families with Children
Diane K. McLaughlin and Alisha J. Coleman-Jensen 105

6 Patterns of Family Formation and Dissolution in Rural America and Implications for Well-Being
Anastasia Snyder 124

7 Job Characteristics and Economic Survival Strategies: The Effect of Economic Restructuring and Marital Status in a Rural County
Margaret K. Nelson 136

8 Economic Hardship, Parenting, and Family Stability in a Cohort of Rural Adolescents
Katherine Jewsbury Conger 158

Section 3: Low-Wage Employment

9 Parents' Work Time in Rural America: The Growth of Irregular Schedules
Elaine McCrate 177

10 Low-Wage Employment Among Minority Women in Nonmetropolitan Areas: A Decomposition Analysis
Marlene Lee 194

11 Regional Variation of Women in Low-Wage Work Across Rural Communities
Cynthia D. Anderson and Chih-Yuan Weng 215

Section 4: Work and Family Policy

12 Strengthening Rural Communities Through Investment in Youth Education, Employment, and Training
Liliokanaio Peaslee and Andrew Hahn 233

13 Child Care in Rural America
Nicole D. Forry and Susan K. Walker 256

14 Health Insurance in Rural America
Deborah Roempke Graefe 273

15 Livelihood Practices in the Shadow of Welfare Reform
Ann R. Tickamyer and Debra A. Henderson 294