CofFEE
Centre of Full Employment and Equity

The Aftermath of The Crisis

Incorporating the 12th Path to Full Employment Conference
and
17th National Conference on Unemployment

2 – 3 December 2010
The University of Newcastle
Australia

Proceedings
Refereed papers

Edited by Graham Wrightson
Table of Contents

Refereed Papers

The Impact of the Global Financial Crisis on Economic Reform Processes in Nigeria
Salihu Abdulwaheed Adelabu and AbdulJubreel Babatunde Odukoya, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia ................................................................. 1

Basel Rules, endogenous Money Growth, Financial Accumulation and Debt Crisis
Trond Andresen
Norwegian Institute of Technology, Trondheim, Norway ................................... 8

Contesting the Social Impacts of Neo-liberalism: Economic Recovery, Unemployment and Young People in the Illawarra Region
Scott Burrows, University of Wollongong ....................................................... 21

Employment programs: the need for capacity development for participants and for providers
Ed Carson, University of South Australia and Lorraine Kerr, Flinders University ............................................................. 35

Internal migration in Australia: Does it exacerbate or mitigate regional skills disparities?
Diana Castorina, N. Stoeckl and Riccardo Welters,
James Cook University ..................................................................................... 44

The labour market experience of people with mental health disorders in Australia
Beth Cook,
CofFEE, The University of Newcastle .............................................................. 63

Creating Effective Employment Solutions for Persons with Psychosis
Beth Cook, William Mitchell, Gorica Trajkovic and Victor Quirk
CofFEE, The University of Newcastle .............................................................. 79

Education and Employment Outcomes for People with Disability
Mike Dockery and Michelle Twigger
Centre for Research in Applied Economics, Curtin University ....................... 92

Did Switzerland take a free ride out of the 2008/2009 recession?
Andres Frick, Michael Graff, Jochen Hartwig, Boriss Silverstovs
KOF Swiss Economic Institute, ETH Zurich ..................................................... 105

The ‘Aftermath’ of the Global Financial Crisis and Dysfunctional Macroeconomics
Neil Hart, University of Western Sydney .......................................................... 128
Fiscal Withdrawal and Real Wage Repression: A Stock-flow Consistent Analysis in the Context of the Global Financial Crisis
Most. Tajkira Khandoker, James Juniper, Janet Dzator
The University of Newcastle ........................................................................................................ 140

Where to from here: A 'decent' job is still a feasible human right and more important than ever
Peter Kriesler and J.W. Nevile, Centre for Applied Economic Research
University of New South Wales .................................................................................................. 156

Financialisation: Prelude to Crisis
Bill Lucarelli, The University of Western Sydney ........................................................................ 169

Regional Industry Diversity and its Impact on Regional Unemployment
Stephen Mason and Dennis Howard,
School of Commerce, Southern Cross University .................................................................. 180

Managing the Labour Market through Workplace Coaching
Christiaan McComb, The University of Newcastle ..................................................................... 194

Recessions and flexible labour markets
William Mitchell and Joan Muysken
CofFEE, The University of Newcastle and CofFEE, University of Maastricht ..................... 205

Self Determination Theory and Employed Job Search
William Mitchell, Joan Muysken and Riccardo Welters
CofFEE, The University of Newcastle,
CofFEE-Europe, University of Maastricht, and
James Cook University .............................................................................................................. 222

London’s silken chords and the Depression we had to have Victor Quirk,
Centre of Full Employment and Equity, The University of Newcastle .................................. 236

Responding to the Global Fiscal Crisis with ‘Credibility’: An Assessment of the Macroeconomic Policy Frameworks of the Inter-Governmental Organisations
Timothy Sharpe and Martin Watts
Business School and CofFEE, The University of Newcastle .................................................... 250

The labour market experience of people with mental illness– a qualitative survey
Gorica Trajkovic,
Centre of Full Employment and Equity, The University of Newcastle .................................. 263