Emerging Asia

Essays on Crises, Capital Flows, FDI and Exchange Rates

Ramkishen S. Rajan
Professor & Co-director, Center for Emerging Market Policies (CEMP), School of Public Policy, George Mason University, USA and Visiting Senior Fellow, Institute of Southeast Asian Studies (ISEAS), Singapore
Contents

List of Illustrations ix

Preface and Acknowledgements xii

Part I Crisis, Capital Flows and Exchange Rates in Asia

1. Booms and Busts in Private Capital Flows to Emerging Asia since the 1990s 3

2. Asia As a Source of Capital (with Rabin Hattari) 9

3. Will the US Dollar Remain the Single Global Currency? (with Sasidaran Gopalari) 17

4. Exchange Rate Regimes in Asia 22

5. East Asia and the Real Exchange Rate (with Javier H. Beverinotti) 26

Part II Exchange Rate Volatility, Crises and Controls in Emerging Economies

6. The Problem with Exchange Rate Volatility 33

7. Capital Controls: No Longer Unorthodox 37

8. Reconsidering the Tobin Tax 43

9. Sovereign Debt Defaults: Concerns and Lessons 49

10. Banking Sector Internationalisation in Asia (with Sasidaran Gopalari) 54

Part III Asia and the Global Financial Architecture

12. Sequencing of Regional Cooperation in Asia: The Real and Financial Dimensions 68
Contents

13 Revisiting Asian Monetary and Financial Cooperation 75
14 The Idea and Reality of the Asian Currency Unit (ACU) 80
15 Asia in the G20: Monetary and Financial Considerations 85
   (with Sasidaran Gopalan)

Part IV Monetary and Financial Issues in India

16 The Global Financial Crisis and the Bank Lending Channel 91
   (with M. Shahidul Islam)
17 Macroeconomic Management during a Period of Plenty in India 99
18 Post-Global Financial Crisis: Heating Up of the Inflation Debate in India 104
   (with Venkataramana Yanamandra)
19 India's International Reserves: How Diversified? 112
   (with Sasidaran Gopalan)
20 The Importance of Remittances in India and South Asia 116
   (with Sasidaran Gopalan)

Part V Foreign Direct Investment Issues in Asia

21 Foreign Portfolio versus Foreign Direct Investment Flows: Are They So Different? 125
22 Intra-Asian Foreign Direct Investment Flows 128
   (with Rabin Hattari)
23 Revisiting India's Foreign Direct Investment Numbers 137
   (with Sasidaran Gopalan)
24 Attracting Foreign Direct Investment: The Role of Financial and Fiscal Incentives 145
25 Global Competition for Foreign Direct Investment and Investment Promotion 150

Notes 155
Subject Index 171