Studies in Economic Reform and Social Justice

Social, Methods, and Microeconomics: Contributions to Doing Economics Better

Edited by
Frederic S. Lee

B 377429
Contents

Editor's Introduction ......................................................... 1

Lineages of Embeddedness: On the Antecedents and Successors of a Polanyian Concept—Gareth Dale ......................................................... 5

Social Ecological Economics: Understanding the Past to See the Future—Clive L. Spash ................................................................. 39

Would You Barter with God? Why Holy Debts and Not Profane Markets Created Money—Alla Semenova ......................................................... 75

Human Capital: Theoretical and Empirical Insights—
Germana Bottone and Vania Sena ................................................ 100

On Norms: A Typology with Discussion—Matthew Interis ............. 123

The Battle of Methods in Economics: The Classical Methodenstreit—Menger vs. Schmoller—Marek Louzek ................. 138

Emily Greene Balch, Political Economist—Robert W. Dimand ........ 163

Who Do Heterodox Economists Think They Are?—
Andrew Mearman .................................................................... 179

Microeconomics After Keynes: Post Keynesian Economics and Public Policy—Steven Pressman ................................................................. 210

Morgenstern's Forgotten Contribution: A Stab to the Heart of Modern Economics—Philipp Bagus ................................................................. 239

Index .......................................................................................... 262