Shaping Global Industrial Relations

The Impact of International Framework Agreements

Edited by
Konstantinos Papadakis
Contents

Tables, Figures and Boxes xi
Foreword xiii
Acknowledgements xv
Contributors xvi
List of Abbreviations xix

Introduction and Overview 1
Konstantinos Papadakis
Origins and underlying expectations 3
Prevalence of IFAs 5
The rationale and overview of this volume 7
Overview of chapters 7
Overall messages 11
Concluding remarks: thoughts on a future research and policy agenda 13

Part I Cross-border Social Dialogue and Agreements: Processes and Outcomes

1 The Impact of Transnational Company Agreements on Social Dialogue and Industrial Relations 21
Isabelle Schömann
Introduction 21
Methodological aspects 23
Impact on respect for core labour standards: making trade union rights more effective 26
Impact on labour-management relations in multinationals: social dialogue as a goal 29
TCAs' impact on industrial relations: a framework for collective bargaining with multinationals? 32
Conclusions 35

2 A Qualitative Analysis of International Framework Agreements: Implementation and Impact 38
Christian Welz
Implementation
The body responsible for implementation
Concrete implementation measures
Scope of application
Implementation and impact: selected company cases
Bosch
Chiquita
Leoni
PSA Peugeot Citroën
Telefónica
Securitas
Tentative impact assessment
Scope and bodies of implementation
Implementation matters
A mutual learning exercise
Conflict resolution
New governance in transnational industrial relations

3 Adopting International Framework Agreements in the Russian Federation, South Africa and Japan: Management Motivations
Konstantinos Papadakis
Introduction
Literature review of company motivations and expectations
Coercive factors
Anticipatory factors
Civil society pressure factors
Case studies from the Russian Federation, South Africa and Japan
Lukoil
AngloGold Ashanti
Takashimaya
Summary
Conclusions

Part II Implementing International Framework Agreements on the Ground: Case Studies
4 Going Local with Global Policies: Implementing International Framework Agreements in Brazil and the United States
Michael Fichter and Markus Helfen
Introduction 85
Business restructuring and global production networks 87
The limits of corporate social responsibility 88
Implementing global social dialogue in global production networks: IFAs 89
Extending social dialogue beyond Europe: the challenges of implementing IFAs in Brazil and the United States 90
Brazilian IFA cases: local diversity – recognized frameworks
  The labour relations setting in Brazil: from restrictive corporatism to limited democratization 93
  Rhodia 96
  Leoni 97
  Mercedes 98
Implementing international framework agreements in the United States: a futile exercise for unions?
  The labour relations setting in the United States: freedom of association and collective bargaining 100
  The role of human resource management ideology 102
Union recognition cases: similar problems, different outcomes 103
Local politics without a global perspective 103
  Eurocopter 103
  Mercedes-Benz and Ai3 105
Local and global embeddedness 106
  Lafarge 107
  Skanska 108
  Dannon 109
  G4S 109
Conclusions: ‘Are we still in Kansas?’ 110

5 The Impacts of International Framework Agreements: Lessons from the Daimler case 116
Dimitris Stevis
Introduction 116
The Daimler IFA in context 119
  Company characteristics and strategies 119
  Labour characteristics and strategies 121
  German industrial relations 122
The formulation of the Daimler IFA: negotiations and content 123
Contents

The World Employee Committee 123
The Daimler IFA 125
Implementation of the Daimler IFA: application and compliance 127
   In the corporation 127
   Among suppliers and business partners 130
Implementation of the Daimler IFA: enforcement and evaluation 133
   Within the company 133
   Along the supply chain 134
The trees and the forest: from good practices to global social dialogue 136
   Participation 137
   Content 137
   Intensity 138
   Into the future 139

6 Transnational Restructuring Agreements: General Overview and Specific Evidence from the European Automobile Sector 143
   Isabel da Costa and Udo Rehfeldt
Introduction 143
   Transnational collective bargaining: definition and developments 145
   Transnational company restructuring agreements 150
   Transnational restructuring agreements in the automobile sector 155
      Ford Europe 155
      General Motors Europe 157
      Daimler 159
      Coordination: the EWCs, the unions and the EMF 160
Conclusions: the necessary transnational coordination during restructuring 162

7 International Framework Agreements: Do Workers Benefit in a Global Banana Supply Chain? 164
   Pamela K. Robinson
Introduction 164
   International framework agreements 166
   A global banana supply chain 168
   An IFA: on the ground 170
Conclusions 176
8 Global Social Relations and Corporate Social Responsibility in Outsourced Apparel Supply Chains: The Inditex Global Framework Agreement

Doug Miller

Introduction

The origins of the GFA

The Spectrum factory collapse

The mature systems of industrial relations approach

The GFA and issues in implementation

The GFA and the promotion of freedom of association, workers’ organization and collective bargaining

The establishment of sound industrial relations at the company level

Impact on working conditions

The Inditex GFA and transformative CSR

Fast fashion: the elephant in the room

Conclusions

Part III Complementary Initiatives

9 Organizing Networks and Alliances: International Unionism between the Local and the Global

Steve Davies, Glynne Williams and Nikolaus Hammer

Introduction

Using the IFA in Hochtief: global negotiation, local organizing?

International union networks in MNEs

International union mergers and alliances

Nautilus

Workers Uniting

To merge or not to merge

Discussion and conclusions

10 Better Factories Cambodia: An Instrument for Improving Industrial Relations in a Transnational Context

Arianna Rossi and Raymond Robertson

Introduction

Better Factories Cambodia and the Better Work Programme

Data

Industrial relations measures in Better Factories Cambodia

Conclusions
Contents

Discussion 239
Conclusions 241

Appendix: Overview of Provisions in International Framework Agreements 243

Bibliography 270

Index 295