Working Across Cultures
Ethical Perspectives for Intercultural Management

edited by

HEIKO LANGE
Deutsche Lufthansa AG,
Frankfurt, Germany

ALBERT LÖHR
University of Erlangen-Nürnberg,
Germany

and

HORST STEINMANN
University of Erlangen-Nürnberg,
Germany

KLUWER ACADEMIC PUBLISHERS
DORDRECHT / BOSTON / LONDON
Contents

Part I: Introduction and General Overview

Welcome Address
Jürgen Weber ................................................................. 3

The Ethical Dimension of Cross-cultural Business Activities
Albert Löhr & Horst Steinmann ........................................... 7

Doing Business in Different Cultures.
Ethical Challenges of a Multinational Corporation
Peter Duncan ........................................................................ 21

Discussion on the Keynote Speech of Peter Duncan .............. 33

Part II: International Corruption

Introduction: The Challenge of International Corruption
Peter Eigen ........................................................................... 55

The Role of Governments in International Corruption
Frene Ginwala ...................................................................... 59

The European Union and the Fight Against Corruption in International Trade
Ugo Draetta ........................................................................ 73

Co-ordinated Steps to Prevent Transnational Corruption.
Consequences for the Business Community
Mark Pieth ............................................................................ 93

Multinational Corporations, Governance Deficits, and Corruption: Discussing a Complex Issue from the Perspective of Business Ethics
Klaus M. Leisinger .......................................................... 113

Corruption as a Threat to the United Nations
Karl Theodor Paschke ....................................................... 141
Part III: Values and Ethics in the Corporate Transformation Process

Restructuring and Mental Change

Heiko Lange .................................................................................................................. 149

The Role of Values in Corporate Transformation. The merger between ÅSV and Hydro’s Aluminium Division in 1986

Bjørn Erik Dahlberg ........................................................................................................ 161

A Model in an Economic Upheaval – Questioning of Values in the Market Economy?

Gerrit Popkes & Kati Rieger ................................................................................................ 169

Unemployment and Experienced Injustices: The Social Responsibility of the Organization for Cushioning the Process of Downsizing

Thomas Kieselbach .......................................................................................................... 191

Part IV: Reflections on Cross-Cultural Issues of Business Ethics

Reason and Cultures.

Life-world as the Common Ground of Ethics

Carl Friedrich Gethmann .................................................................................................. 213

Business Ethics in Three European Countries: A Comparative Approach

Fred Seidel, Hans-Jörg Schlierer & Ian Tovey ................................................................. 235

Discourse Instead of Recourse: Is it Worth Using a Guided Approach to Negotiation When Working Across Cultures?

Warren French & Bernd Mühlfriedel .................................................................................. 263

Culture as the Intermediate Structure of the Economy

Peter Koslowski .................................................................................................................. 287

The Ethics of Interest: A Cultural-historical Perspective

Luk Bouckaert .................................................................................................................... 305

The Principles of the Advertising Self-regulation in Europe

Edoardo Brioschi ................................................................................................................ 321

About the Authors ................................................................................................................. 341