The Korean Economy
Six Decades of Growth and Development

Edited by
Il SaKong and Youngsun Koh

The Committee for the Sixty-Year History of the Korean Economy
Contents

Foreword
A Note on Romanization
Abbreviations
Contributors

Chapter 1

Introduction 001
Il SaKong

Chapter 2

The Growth of Korean Economy and the Role of Government 007
Youngsun Koh
1. Introduction 009
2. Liberation and state-building (1948-1959) 010
3. Export promotion and government-led industrialization (1960-1979) 016
5. From the economic crisis to the present (1997-2009) 061
6. Challenges 073
7. Conclusion 074

Chapter 3

Korea’s Industrial Development 083
DoHoon Kim and Youngsun Koh
1. Introduction 085
2. Structural changes in the Korean economy 086
3. Historical development of Korean industry 102
4. Conclusion 118
Chapter 4
International Economic Policy 123
Junkyu Lee, Jungho Yoo, Nakgyoon Choi,
Jeong Gon Kim, June Dong Kim, Hea-Jung Hyun,
Sangkyom Kim, Jinkyo Suh, Deok Ryong Yoon,
Hongshik Lee and Yoocheul Song
1. Introduction 125
2. The early evolution of international economic policy from the 1950s to 1970s 125
3. Expansion of economic liberalization and globalization from 1980 to the present 137
4. Liberalization of foreign direct investment 145
5. Economic cooperation 150
6. Agricultural import liberalization 154
7. Liberalization in the service sector 161
8. Financial opening 167
9. Conclusion 173

Chapter 5
Territorial Development Policy 177
Jung Jay Joh, Young-Pyo Kim and Youngsun Koh
1. Introduction 179
2. Agrarian land reform and post-war reconstruction
   from 1948 to the 1950s 183
3. Development of industrial parks and population migration to Seoul in the 1960s 184
4. Development corridors and the Saemaul Movement from 1970 to 1987 186
5. The pursuit of a better quality of life and globalization
   from 1988 to the 1990s 195
6. Promoting regional balance and green growth in the 2000s 202
7. An assessment of Korea’s territorial policy 209
8. Conclusion 223