Contents

1 INTRODUCTION 1

2 HUMAN BETTERMENT 3
   2.1 Want-Satisfaction 5
   2.2 Conduct and Character 15
      (i) Honesty 16
      (ii) Respect for persons 18
      (iii) The pursuit of excellence 25
      (iv) Generosity 28
      (v) Deliberateness 36
   2.3 Change – The Negative Side 41
      (i) Want-satisfaction 41
      (ii) The family 47
      (iii) Speculation 52
      (iv) Competition 58

3 GROWTH AND BETTERMENT 67
   3.1 From Growth to Betterment 68
      (i) The constants 68
      (ii) The infrastructure 73
      (iii) The variables 81
   3.2 From Betterment to Growth 97
      (i) Want-satisfaction 97
      (ii) Conduct and character 101
      (iii) Change – the negative side 111

4 COLLECTIVE ACTION 118
   4.1 Socialism 120
   4.2 Market and State 129
   4.3 State and Improvement 143
   4.4 Co-operation 158
      (i) Economic efficiency 160
      (ii) Moral upgrading 162
5 MICROECONOMIC POLICY

5.1 The Nature of Taxation 169
   (i) Taxes on income 170
   (ii) Taxes on wealth 174
   (iii) Taxes on expenditure 177

5.2 Collective Consumption 182
   (i) Health and housing 183
   (ii) Education 191

5.3 The Relief of Poverty 203
   (i) The minimum wage 205
   (ii) Income maintenance 207

5.4 Industry and Trade 222
   (i) Control of monopoly 222
   (ii) Public ownership 226
   (iii) The provision of intelligence 234
   (iv) Trade policy 237

6 MACROECONOMIC POLICY

6.1 The Quantity Theory of Money 245
   (i) The quantity of money 246
   (ii) The velocity of money 254
   (iii) Money, velocity and prices 257

6.2 The Transmission Mechanism 260
   (i) The rate of interest 261
   (ii) The level of prices 266

6.3 Upswings and Downswings 272
   (i) The boom 272
   (ii) The slump 278
   (iii) Say’s law 285

6.4 Stabilisation Policy 288
   (i) The tabular standard 291
   (ii) Bimetallism 296
   (iii) Reserves and exchanges 302

7 PROGRESS, POLITICS AND ECONOMICS

7.1 The Definition of Economics 310

7.2 Induction and Deduction 321
   (i) Induction 322
   (ii) Deduction 329
Contents

7.3 Organicism and Economics
   (i) Natura non facit saltum 340
   (ii) The many in the one, the one in the many 349

7.4 The Mission of the Economist 356

Notes and References 365

Index 489