Business and Management Practices in Greece
A Comparative Context

Edited by Rea Prouska
and Maria Kapsali

palgrave macmillan
PART I  THE GREEK BUSINESS SYSTEM

1  Politics  3
Political and Economic Developments through a Historical Perspective
Maria Kapsali and Joseph Butler
Overview  3
Modern Greece from 1830 to 1900  5
Modern Greece from 1900 to 1950  8
Modern Greece between 1950 and 2010 and the roots of the debt crisis  13
Summary  21

2  Economics  26
Productivity Performance, Determinants and Future Prospects
Ioannis Bournakis
Overview  26
A conceptual definition of productivity  27
The Greek economy 1995–2005  29
The de-industrialization process in Greece and manufacturing productivity  30
Does Greece’s productivity equal levels in the rest of the EU?  34
The sources of labour productivity growth  37
An econometric model for the sources of labour productivity  40
Technology catch-up and productivity growth  42
Summary  44
Appendix 2.1  47
3 Finance 49
Banking and Investment

_Athanasios Kouloridas_

Overview 49
The economic outlook and the financial sector 49
Financial regulation: the banking sector 53
Financial regulation: investment services 59
Prospects – the way forward 62

4 Development 66
The Role of the Public Sector and Firms in Economic Development

_Kyriakos Hatzaras_

Overview 66
The economic role of the state in the periphery of Europe 69
The empirical reality 76
Regional programming implementation in Greece, 1994–2002 78
National programming implementation in Greece, 2000–06 84
Summary 88

5 Innovation 96
The National Innovation System

_Maria Kapsali_

The Triple Helix model – a tool for analysis of national innovation systems 96
The structure and performance of the Greek National Innovation System 99
Innovation policy and politics within the system 102
Summary 107

6 Law 112
Company Law, Tax and Employment Law

_Eirini Kokkori, Ageliki Katsiyianni and Nektarios Polychroniou_

Overview 112
Company law 113
Tax law 122
Employment law 128
Summary 136
PART II  MANAGEMENT PRACTICES IN GREEK FIRMS

7 Strategic Management  141
   Efthimios Poulis
   Overview  141
   Micro-external environment  142
   Internal environment  144
   Competitive strategies  145
   Corporate strategies  150
   Summary  152

8 International Business  155
   Konstantinos Poulis
   Overview  155
   International business in Greece: the outward activity of Greek firms  157
   Structural weaknesses of the Greek economy and their effect on IB  158
   The geographical and product scope of Greek firms abroad  159
   Greek multinationals  161
   Doing business in Greece – the foreign multinational perspective  165
   Summary  167

9 Human Resource Management  170
   Rea Prouska
   Overview  170
   Historical overview  171
   Supply and demand in the Greek labour market  172
   The HR department and HR managers  173
   HR practices  174
   Outsourcing HR activities  179
   e-HR  180
   Critical HRM issues  181
   Summary  182

10 Marketing  186
   Panagiotis Ballas
   Overview  186
   The marketing environment in Greece  186
   Challenges faced by marketing agencies in Greece  191
   E-marketing and mobile marketing  195
   Corporate Social Responsibility  198
   Summary  200
11 Sales 203
Ioannis Gedeon
Overview 203
The sales force 204
Customer relationship management 206
E-advertising and e-sales 207
Comparison of sales practices in a local and a multinational firm 210
Summary 212

12 Total Quality Management 214
Alexandros Psychogios
Overview 214
The nature of the Greek management system 215
The quality movement in Greece 218
Aspects of TQM in the private sector 219
Aspects of TQM in the public sector 221
Driving TQM application: barriers and facilitators 222
Summary 231

13 Accounting and Auditing Practices 236
Constantinos Caramanis and Emmanouil Dedoulis
Overview 236
A brief account of the politico-economic history of modern Greece 237
Origins and development of accounting and auditing up to the 1970s: a conservative, state-oriented mentality 238
The 'Europeanization' era: 1980 to date 241
Accounting and auditing following the adoption of IFRSs: the view of financial executives and auditors 247
Summary 250

PART III CONCLUSION: SUMMARY, COMPARISON AND SUGGESTIONS

14 The Business System and Management Practices in Greece 259
Rea Prouska and Maria Kapsali
Overview 259
Systemic factors in the Greek business system 262
Management practices in Greek firms 265
The bigger picture 269
15 Systems and Practices: Peripheral Countries Compared with the UK
Rea Prouska and Maria Kapsali

Overview
State, institutions and infrastructures in the peripheral and UK business systems
A comparison of finance, market, firm and labour figures in the peripheral countries' and UK business systems
Challenges faced by SMEs in the EU
Management practices in the peripheral countries and the UK
Summary

16 Suggestion for Further Research on the Business System and Practices in Greece
Rea Prouska and Maria Kapsali

Strategic management
International business
Human Resource Management
Total Quality Management
Marketing and sales
Accounting and auditing
Comparative research

Index