

The New Regulatory State

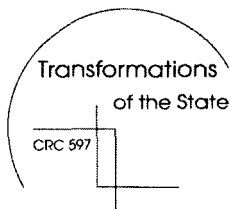

Regulating Pensions in Germany and the UK

Edited by

Lutz Leisering

Professor of Social Policy, Department of Sociology, Bielefeld University, Germany and Director at the Institute for World Society Studies, Germany

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Tables	ix
List of Figures	x
Series Editors' Preface	xi
Preface and Acknowledgements	xii
Notes on Contributors	xvii
Introduction: Towards a New Regulatory State in Old-Age Security? Exploring the Issues Lutz Leisering and Deborah Mabbett	1
Part I Theories of Social and Economic Regulation
1 The Transformations of the Regulatory State Giandomenico Majone	31
2 De-Regulation and Re-Regulation of Public Utilities: The New Regulatory State in the European System of Multi-Level Governance Edgar Grande	57
3 Limits to the Regulated Market: The UK Experiment Peter Taylor-Gooby	80
Part II Pension Privatization and Regulation in Britain and Germany
4 Back to the State? The Public Policies of Private and Public Pensions in Britain Christian Marschallek	103
5 New Private Pensions in Germany: A Pension Market or a Branch of the Welfare State? Contested Regulatory Issues Frank Berner	127
Part III The Role of the EU
6 'Social Europe' in Old-Age Security? EU Policies of Public and Private Pensions Ulrike Davy	153
7 Policies of the EU towards Occupational Pensions: Limits to Regulation Markus Haverland	175

Part IV Comparative and Conceptual Perspectives

- 8 The Regulatory Politics of Private Pensions in the UK and Germany 191
Deborah Mabbett
- 9 The Regulatory Policies of Private Pensions in the UK and Germany: Goals and Instruments of Regulation in a Welfare State Environment 211
Lutz Leisering

Part V Conclusion: Identifying the New Regulatory State

- 10 Varieties of Market Regulation: Comparing the New Pension Regulation to the Regulation of Public Utilities 237
Lutz Leisering
- 11 Transformations of the State: Comparing the New Regulatory State to the Post-War Provider State 254
Lutz Leisering
- 12 Varieties of the New Regulatory State: Comparing the UK and Germany 275
Lutz Leisering
- Afterword: Rethinking the Nation State 289
Lutz Leisering
- Index* 313