Water Policy in Australia

The Impact of Change and Uncertainty

Edited by
Lin Crase

B 379779

RFF PRESS
RESOURCES FOR THE FUTURE
Washington, DC  •  London
Contents

Contributors

1. An Introduction to Australian Water Policy

   Lin Crase

2. The Hydrological Setting

   Rebecca Letcher and Susan Powell

3. Historical Development of Water Resources in Australia: Irrigation Policy in the Murray-Darling Basin

   Warren Musgrave

4. The Legal Frameworks of Australian Water: Progression from Common Law Rights to Sustainable Shares

   Jennifer McKay

5. Uncertainty, Risk, and Water Management in Australia

   John Quiggin

6. The Institutional Setting

   Lin Crase and Brian Dollery

7. Coping with the Reforms to Irrigated Agriculture: The Case of Murray Irrigation

   Jenny McLeod and George Warne

8. Hydroelectricity

   Ronlyn Duncan and Aynsley Kellow

   Terry Hillman

10. Urban Water Management

    Geoff Edwards
11. Acknowledging Scarcity and Achieving Reform .......................... 166
   Lin Crase and Sue O’Keefe

12. Urban Reuse and Desalination ........................................... 184
    Stuart Khan

13. Water Trading and Market Design .................................... 202
    John Rolfe

14. Adaptive Management ..................................................... 216
    Phil Pagan

15. The Social and Cultural Aspects of Sustainable Water Use ......... 230
    Geoffrey J. Syme and Blair E. Nancarrow

16. Lessons From Australian Water Reform ............................... 248
    Lin Crase

Index ...................................................................................... 261