State Structure, Policy Formation, and Economic Development in Southeast Asia

The political economy of Thailand and the Philippines

Antoinette R. Raquiza
Contents

List of figures and tables xv
Acknowledgments xvi
Abbreviations and acronyms xviii

1 Introduction: institutional settings of state power and the policy process 1
   The state in changing development contexts 4
   Policymaking in the ASEAN-4 countries 12
   The case studies 18

2 Patterns of economic growth: narratives and realities 26
   Open markets, rents, and industrial development 28
   Deconstructing dominant narratives 32
   Two tales of economic collapse and survival 39
   Conclusion 50

3 Building the modern state and economy 52
   Thailand and its bureaucratic polity 56
   The Philippines and its proprietary polity 66
   Synthesis and conclusion 79

4 Comparative policy dynamics of trade and investment promotion 86
   Thailand and the Philippines: early history of international trade 87
   Politics of import-substitution industrialization 92
   Conclusion 105