Spatial Politics and Economic Development in the Mekong Sub-region

A collection of papers from the international conference 'Critical Transitions in the Mekong Sub-region'

Chayan Vaddhanaphuti and Amporn Jirattikorn
Editors
Contents

Preface vii
Contributors ix
Introduction 1

Jameer Chiengthong

Part One: The GMS

1. The GMS and Thailand's 'Spatial Fix' 7
   Jim Glassman

2. The Southwest Drift of the Chinese 23
   Grant Evans

Part Two: The Mekong as a Water Resource at the Transnational Level

3. Cooperation between China and the Lower Mekong States for Shared Water: Problems and Challenges 33
   Han Hongyun and Sitanon Jesdipat

4. The ADB/WB/MRC 'Mekong Water Resources Assistance Strategy': Promoting Large Water Infrastructure with Trans-boundary Impacts 62
   Carl Middleton

Part Three: Policy and Development

5. Land Use, Land Tenure and Livelihood Diversification in the Context of Shifting Cultivation Stabilization in Lao PDR 90
   Dexanourath Seneduangdeth
6. Right to Power? Democratic Decision-Making and Natural Resource Management in Rural China: A Case Study from Yunnan Province
   Yufang Su and Fredrich Kahrl

Part Four: Ecology – Cross Border Impacts

7. Representations and Contestations of Space: The Tonle Sap
   Mak Sithirith and Carl Grundy-Warr

Index