Financial Services for the Poorest:
Towards Comprehensiveness

Ikhtiar Jahan Kabir

Foreword by
Dr Salehuddin Ahmed
Former Governor, Bangladesh Bank
Contents

List of Illustration
List of Tables
Abbreviations
Foreword
Acknowledgement
A Brief Sketch

1. CHAPTER-I: INTRODUCTION
- Financial Services 2
- Financial Institutions 3
- Components of Regular Financial Services 6
- Financial Services for the Poor 8
- Financial Services for the Poorest 11

2. CHAPTER-II: THE CONTEXTS
- Microfinance and Microcredit Debate 18
- History of Microcredit Evolution 22
- Evolution and Development of Microcredit in Bangladesh 24
- Divergent Needs of the Poor and Microcredit 29
- Microcredit and Financial Services for the Poorest 37
- Financial Services for the Poorest: FSP and Others of PKSF 39

3. CHAPTER-II: REASONS FOR EXCLUSION FROM MICROCREDIT: STRATEGIES TO INCLUDE
- Poverty Situation of the Country 43
- Reasons of Ultra Poverty 47
- Microcredit and Ultra Poor Contentions 48
- Reasons for Exclusion 48
Strategies to Overcome the Access Problem 49
Suitable Microcredit for the Poorest 55
The Poorest Group 56
Suitable IGAs for the poorest 57

4. CHAPTER-IV: PROJECT PLANNING AND IMPLEMENTATION

Project versus Program 59
Logical Framework of a Project 65
Project Planning Cycle 70
  Project Identification and Definition 71
  Project Formulation, Preparation and Feasibility Analysis 72
  Project Design 73
  Project Appraisal 74
  Project Selection, Negotiation and Approval 74
  Project Activation and Organization 74
  Project Implementation and Operations 75
  Project Supervision, Monitoring and Control 76
  Project Completion or Termination 76
  Output Defusion and Transition 77
  Project Evaluation 78
  Follow-up Analysis and Action 80

5. CHAPTER-V: FRAMEWORK AND PROJECT CYCLE IN FSP

Logical Framework in FSP 82
The FSP Project Planning Cycle 83
Seeing FSP through Rondinelli's Project Planning Cycle 84
  Project Identification and Definition 84
  Project Formulation, Preparation and Feasibility Analysis 85
  Project Design 86
  Project Appraisal 88
  Project Selection, Negotiation and Approval 88
  Project Activation and Organization 88
  Project Implementation and Operations 89
  Project Supervision, Monitoring and Control 92
  Project Completion or Termination 93

xvi
6. CHAPTER-VI: EXPERIENCE THROUGH ACTIVITIES

(i) Microcredit

Selection of Participants 101
Screening the Non-Target People 102
Purpose of Loan 102
Program Placement 103
Position of the Program 104
Beneficiaries' Socio-Economic Condition 105
Deepening Outreach 105
Receiving Loan 106
Utilization of Loan 107
Loan size 109
Participants-Borrower Ratio 110
Service Charge and Effective Rate of Interest 110
Repayment Schedule 111
Repayment Condition 112
Savings Deposit 113
Savings Management 115
Savings Withdrawal 115
Group Liability 115
Group Meeting 115
Emergency/Natural Disaster 116
Human Resources in MFIs 117

(ii) Institutional Development Support

(a) Support for PKSF
FSP Unit 118
Research Cell 119

(b) ID Support for Partner MFIs
Human Resources 120
| Training                                      | 121 |
| Logistic Supports                            | 121 |
| Capacitization of Beneficiaries              | 122 |
| General Orientation (Social Development) Training | 122 |
| Income Generating Training                   | 123 |
| Training for Self-Employment                 | 124 |
| Training for Wage Employment                 | 125 |

(iii) Monitoring and Evaluation 129

(iv) Social Development Support of the MFIs 131

7. CHAPTER-VII: IMPACT OF FSP
Increase of Microcredit Outreach 136
Contribution to Participants' Life 137
Formation of MFIs' Risk-Taking Attitude 152
Devising a Flexible Microcredit Model 153
Ramification of Poorest Sympathetic Services 154
Formation of Anti-poverty Alliance 157

8. CHAPTER-VIII: FEEDBACK FROM THE GRASSROOTS
(a) Beneficiaries' Perceptions 162
(b) Inclusion of Lower Strata People:
   - Beggars
   - Sex Workers
   - Members of Child Laborers' Family
   - Disadvantaged Women
   - Indigenous People
   - Domestic Helps
(c) Opinion of the Direct Implementers:
   - Rate of Interest
   - Flexibility
   - Subsidization
   - Social Development Services
   - Sustainability

9. CHAPTER-IX: LESSONS FROM A CRITICAL VIEW
Groundwork for a Project 177
Understanding the Situation 177
Identifying Problems, Devising Strategy  178
Designing the Program Considering Realities  178
Consultation with the Participants  179
Limitations Prelude to Comprehensiveness  179
Dynamic Decision Making  180
The Served and Service Provider Contention  181
Commitment of the MFIs  181
Safeguarding Interest of the Poorest  182
Social Development Services  182
Subsidies  183
Short-Term versus Long-Term  183
Awareness Campaign  184
Skills Training  184
Self-Employment and Wage-Employment Training  184
The Poorest Need More Care  185
Systemic verses Sub-Systemic Solution  186
The Larger the MFIs, the More the Capacity  186
Conglomerism in Services  186
Alliance and Convergence  187
Gender-Equal Remuneration  187
Flexibility Needs More Attention  188
Conservatism Threatens the Cause  188
Observing Extreme Cases  188
Information Reliability  189
The Insurance Issue  189
Research and Development  192

10. CHAPTER-X: CONCLUSION

A  195

B  196

Financial Intermediation:  196
Working Capital  196
Asset Building  197
Interest-free Loan  197
Savings and Related Others  197
Safeguard Services  198