WORK AND EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS

An Era of Change

Essays in Honour of Russell Lansbury

Editors
Marian Baird
Keith Hancock
Joe Isaac

THE FEDERATION PRESS
2011
Contents

Acknowledgements vii
Contributors viii
Table of Cases xiii
Table of Statutes xiv

Tribute to Russell Lansbury AM xv
Joe Isaac

1. Introduction to Work and Employment Relations: A New Agenda 1
Marian Baird, Keith Hancock and Joe Isaac

2. Legislated Standards: The Australian Approach 6
Ron McCallum

3. The Distinctiveness of Modern Awards 17
Mark Bray

4. Trade Unions and Collective Bargaining 34
Rae Cooper and Bradon Ellern

5. Employers in Australia in 2011: New Roles and Relations in the Workplace? 51
Patricia Todd

6. Paid Parental Leave Policy and Employer Response 63
Marian Baird

7. Skills and Skill Formation in Australian Workplaces: Beyond the War for Talent? 78
Richard Hall

Bill Harley

9. Approaches to Gender-Based Undervaluation in Australian Industrial Tribunals: Lessons From Recent Childcare Cases 109
Gillian Whitehouse and Tricia Rooney

10. Productivity and Labour: Four Paradoxes and their Implications for Policy 124
John Buchanan
11. Still the Exception? Australian Employment Relations in Comparative Perspective 141
   Nick Wailes

12. Giving Employees a Voice in the Workplace: A Comparative Historical Perspective 153
   Greg Patmore

13. How Do We Make Minimum Wages Effective? 167
   William Brown

   Thomas A Kochan

15. The ‘Rise and Stumble’ of Flexicurity: Lessons for the European Union and Australia 196
   Peter Auer

Index 212