Basel III, the Devil and Global Banking

Dimitris N. Chorafas
Contents

List of Tables and Figures viii

Introduction ix

PART I THE FINANCIAL CRISIS IS SHAPING REGULATORY REFORM

1 Basel III: An Overview and a Warning 3
   A bird's eye view of Basel III capital rules 3
   The concept underlying modern regulation 6
   The devil is in the detail of all decisions 9
   What the book offers the reader 13

PART II THE PERPETUAL MOTION OF GLOBAL FINANCE

2 Finance and Banking Are Time and Motion Machines 19
   The central bankers' trilemma 19
   Effects of the 'New Economy' on the financial time machine 22
   Expanding financial markets and their scams 25
   Novel financial instruments and their challenges 28
   Regulations do not match the complexity of derivatives markets 31
   Dark pools, special purpose vehicles and flash crash 34
   The activities of lobbyists 37

3 Global Banking and Systemic Risk 40
   Globalized finance is not a branch of international trade 40
   Global banking's challenges and the Financial Stability Board 42
   Contagion from global crises and systemic risk 46
   Regulatory arbitrage 49
   Gaming Tier 1 capital should be a criminal offense under Basel III 53
   Banks too big to be saved should be allowed to fail 55

4 Basel III Is a Grand Compromise, Not a Bold Initiative 60
   Basel III should not repeat the errors of Basel II 60
   Contingent convertible instruments 64
   A snapshot of new regulatory rules in the making 67
   Management's accountability with capital adequacy 70
   Gaming Basel III through arbitrage and speculation 73
   DTAs: the Japanese spoke in the wheel of capital adequacy 76
Minority interests, mortgage serving, capital for contingencies, pension deficits, intangible assets and leverage ratios 79

PART III  BASEL III AND THE NOTION OF GLOBAL RISK

5 Is It Possible to Regulate a Global Financial Market in Perpetual Change? 85

The need for a supervisory authority has been present since antiquity 85
The regulator's arsenal is never really complete 87
Is the banking industry ahead of the regulator? 90
Which organization and structure for effective global regulation? 92
Redefining important Pillar 2 risks 95
The concept of market discipline and the CDSs' contribution 98
The Board's watch over compliance 102

6 Capital Adequacy and Liquidity: the Devil is in Their Detail 105

Unless we learn from this crisis, we shall repeat the same mistakes 105
The all-important Tier 1 capital 108
Capital buffers for countercyclical events and credit bubbles 111
Assuring greater liquidity than is available at present: LCR and NSFR 114
It is time to face the music: the banks have to raise cash 117
Solvency, liquidity and the effects of massive securitization 120

7 Home-Host Issues Haunt Bankers and Regulators 124

Home-host issues defined 124
Financial globalization is no bed of roses 128
Are the home criteria applicable to the long list of hosts? 131
Home-host issues are at the heart of financial integration 136
After-effects of innovation, derivatives trades and deregulation 139
Global risk capital and home-host supervision 141

PART IV  RISK MANAGEMENT NEEDS A NEW CULTURE

8 The Concept of Risk Management Must Be Thoroughly Revamped 147

Personal accountability 147
Principal risks 150
Risk factors 154
Independence of opinion and transparency 157
Event risk 160
The long tail of risk distribution 163
Stress testing 167