COMMERCIAL ACTIVITY, MARKETS AND ENTREPRENEURS IN THE MIDDLE AGES

ESSAYS IN HONOUR OF RICHARD BRITNELL

edited by

Ben Dodds and Christian D. Liddy

THE BOYDELL PRESS
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables viii
List of Contributors ix
List of Abbreviations x
Richard Britnell: An Appreciation xi
Ben Dodds and Christian D. Liddy

1. Unreal Wages: Long-Run Living Standards and the ‘Golden Age’ of the Fifteenth Century
   John Hatcher 1

   John Langdon 25

3. Crisis Management in London’s Food Supply, 1250–1500
   Derek Keene 45

4. Grain Shortages in Late Medieval Towns
   John S. Lee 63

5. Market Regulation in Fifteenth-Century England
   James Davis 81

6. Self-Government in the Small Towns of Late Medieval England
   Mark Bailey 107

7. Marketing and Trading Networks in Medieval Durham
   Christine M. Newman 129

8. Peasant Opportunities in Rural Durham: Land, Vills and Mills, 1400–1500
   Peter L. Larson 141
9. The Shipmaster as Entrepreneur in Medieval England  165
   Maryanne Kowaleski

10. Cheating the Boss: Robert Carpenter's Embezzlement Instructions
    (1261 \times 1268) and Employee Fraud in Medieval England  183
    Martha Carlin

11. The Public Life of the Private Charter in Thirteenth-Century England  199
    James Masschaele

12. Luxury Goods in Medieval England  217
    Christopher Dyer

Index of People and Places  239

Bibliography of the Writings of Richard Britnell  249

Tabula Gratulatoria  256