CONTENTS

Chapter 1
Introduction to Career Development Interventions
1
- The Meaning of Work Across Time  8
- Linking Work with Worth  11
- Providing Systematic Career Development Interventions  14
- Definition of Terms  15
  - Career  15
  - Career Development  15
  - Career Development Interventions  16
  - Career Counseling  16
  - Career Education  16
  - Career Development Programs  16
- Important Events in the History of Career Development Interventions  16
  - Frank Parsons  17
- Future Trends in Career Development Interventions  30
  - Move to Viewing Career Decisions as Values-Based Decisions  31
  - Move Beyond Objective Assessment  32
  - Move to Counseling-Based Career Assistance  32
  - Move to a Stronger Emphasis on Multicultural Career Development Theories and Interventions  33
  - Move to Focusing on Multiple Life Roles  34
  - Move to Incorporating Social Justice and Advocacy into Career Development Interventions  34
- Summary  36
- Case Study  36
- Student Activities  37
- References  37

Chapter 2
Understanding and Applying Theories of Career Development
42
- Career Development Theories  43
- Super's Life-Span, Life-Space Theory  48
  - Life Span  49
  - Life Space  53
  - Self-Concepts  54
Chapter 3  Understanding and Applying Recent Theories of Career Development  94

Recent Theories  95
Lent, Brown, and Hackett's Social Cognitive Career Theory  96
  Applying SCCT  98
  Evaluating SCCT  100
The Cognitive Information Processing Approach 101
  Applying the CIP Approach 104
  Evaluating CIP 105
Savickas' Career Construction Theory 107
  Evaluating Career Construction Theory 109
Hansen's Integrative Life Planning 109
  Applying ILP 111
  Evaluating ILP 111
Postmodern Approaches 112
  Creating Narratives 112
  Contextualizing Career Development 114
  Constructivist Career Counseling 116
  Chaos Theory of Careers 118
  Evaluating the Chaos Theory of Careers 119
Summary 120
Case Study 122
Student Activities 122
References 123

Chapter 4 Providing Culturally Competent Career Development Interventions 128

Traditional Assumptions of Career Theories in the United States 132
Universal Versus Culture-Specific Models 133
Ethnocentrism 135
Acculturation 136
Identity Development Models 137
  Racial Identity Models 137
  Gender Identity Models 140
  Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual/Transgender/Questioning Identity Models 144
  Persons with Disabilities 147
Assessment 152
Summary 156
Case Study 158
Student Activities 159
References 160

Chapter 5 Assessment and Career Planning 165
The Relationship of Assessment to the Career Planning Process 168
  Step 1: Become Aware of the Need to Make Career Decisions 169
  Step 2: Learn About or Reevaluate Vocational Self-Concept 169
  Step 3: Identify Occupational Alternatives 169
Step 4: Obtain Information About Identified Alternatives 169
Step 5: Make Tentative Choices from Among Available Occupations 170
Step 6: Make Educational Choices 170
Step 7: Implement a Vocational Choice 170

Purposes of Assessment 171
Learning More About the Needs of the Student or Client 171
Learning More About Clients and Helping Them Learn More About Themselves 172
Determining the Change or Progress of an Individual or Group 173

Responsibilities and Competencies of the Counselor 174
Possess General Knowledge About Assessment 174
Have Detailed Knowledge About the Instruments Used 174
Evaluate the Instrument for Usefulness with Diverse Populations 176
Prepare Students or Clients Adequately 177
Administer Instruments Properly 178
Interpret Instruments Properly 178
Follow Through with Clients 179

Informal Assessments 180
Formal Assessments 183
Types of Formal Assessments 184

Ways in Which Assessment Instruments May Be Administered 190
Types of Reports 192
Selection of Instruments 194
Summary 195
Case Study 196
Student Activities 196
References 197
Publishers 198

Chapter 6  Career Information and Resources 199
The Counselor's Role in Providing Data 201
Barriers and Decision Styles 202
Career Information and Diversity 204
The Client's Role in Receiving Data 204
Types of Data Needed by Clients 205
Programs of Study 205
Occupations 207
Schools 210
Financial Aid 212
Jobs 213
Chapter 7 Using Technology to Support Career Counseling and Planning 226

Historical Perspective 228
Current Status of Web-Based Systems 231
   Integrated Career Planning Systems 231
   Virtual Career Centers 233
   Social Networking 233
   Mobile Phone Applications 234
Computer Capabilities That Support Career Guidance 235
The Internet as the Deliverer of Career Guidance 236
Choosing a Web-Based Career Guidance System 237
Adding High Touch to High Tech 239
The Counselor and the Computer 240
Issues Related to Cybercounseling 245
Summary 246
Case Study 246
Student Activities 247
References 248

Chapter 8 Career Counseling Strategies and Techniques for the 21st Century 250

Expanding the Limited View of Career Counseling 252
Career Counseling in the 21st Century 254
Designing Career Counseling Strategies for the 21st Century 255
   Providing Counseling-Based Career Assistance 256
   Providing Support in Career Counseling 258
A Framework for Career Counseling 264

The Beginning or Initial Phase of Career Counseling 265
The Middle or Working Phase of Career Counseling 268
The Ending or Termination Phase of Career Counseling 271

Career Counseling Groups 275
Career Counseling Professional Designations and Related Service Providers 280
Summary 282
Case Study 282
Student Activities 283
References 283

Chapter 9  Designing, Implementing, and Evaluating Career Development Programs and Services 287

Steps for Designing and Implementing a Career Development Program 289

Step 1: Define the Target Population and Its Characteristics 289
Step 2: Determine the Needs of the Target Population 291
Step 3: Write Measurable Objectives to Meet Needs 293
Step 4: Determine How to Deliver the Career Planning Services 295
Step 5: Determine the Content of the Program 296
Step 6: Determine the Cost of the Program 296
Step 7: Begin to Promote and Explain Your Services 297
Step 8: Start Promoting and Delivering the Full-Blown Program of Services 298
Step 9: Evaluate the Program 298
Planning Evaluation 299
Stakeholders 300
Types of Data Collected 300
Benchmarks for Evaluation 301
Methods of Evaluation 304
Using the Results of Evaluation 306
Roadblocks to Evaluation 309
Step 10: Revise the Program as Needed 309

Some Sample Programs 310
Example 1: A Middle School 310
Example 2: A High School 312
Example 3: A University 315
Example 4: A Corporation 317
Example 5: A Community Agency 319

Summary 322
Case Study 322
Chapter 10 Career Development Interventions in the Elementary Schools 324
Overview of Career Development Interventions in the Schools 325
Systematic and Coordinated Planning for Career Development Programs in the Schools 331
Career Development in the Elementary Schools 332
Goals of Career Development Interventions at the Elementary School Level 335
Career Development Interventions in the Elementary Schools 337
Parental Involvement 341
Summary 343
Case Study 343
Student Activities 344
References 344

Chapter 11 Career Development Interventions in Middle and High Schools 364
Middle/Junior High School 366
Career Development Goals for Middle/Junior High School Students 369
Career Development Interventions in Middle/Junior High Schools 370
High School 375
Career Development Goals for High School Students 379
Career Development Interventions in High Schools 380
Career Development Interventions for At-Risk Students 385
Summary 388
Case Study 389
Student Activities 389
References 390

Chapter 12 Career Development Interventions in Higher Education 408
The Career Needs of Higher Education Students 412
The Evolution of Career Development Interventions in Higher Education 415
Career Development Competencies in Adulthood 417
Self-Knowledge 418
Education and Occupational Exploration 418
Career Planning 419
Models, Services, and Standards for Career Development Interventions in Higher Education 421
Models 421
Services 424
Standards 425
Chapter 13 Career Development Interventions in Community Settings

Training, Certification, and Licensure
Competencies
Coordination
  Consultation
  Advocacy
  Case Management
Similarities and Differences in Community-Based Settings
Settings for Community-Based Career Counselors
  Private Practice
  The World Wide Web: Cybercounseling
  Mental Health Centers
  Substance Abuse Centers
  Rehabilitation Settings
  Corrections and Probation
  Military Settings
  Job Service Offices and One-Stop Centers
  Faith-Based Organizations
  Corporations and Other Organizations
Summary
Case Study
Student Activities
References

Chapter 14 Ethical Issues in Career Development Interventions

Ethical Dilemmas versus Moral Temptations
Using Principles to Resolve Ethical Decisions
The Role of Values in Defining Career Development Interventions
Using Ethical Codes
  Progress on Ethical Challenges Facing Career Counselors
  Are All Individual Career Interventions Governed by the Same Ethical Standards?
  Should Those Without Traditional Training and Credentials as Professional Counselors Provide Career Services?
  How Should the Internet Be Used in Career Development Interventions?
The Ethical Standards of the NCDA 478

Section A: The Professional Relationship  478
Section B: Confidentiality, Privileged Communication, and Privacy  478
Section C: Professional Responsibility  478
Section D: Relationships with Other Professionals  479
Section E: Evaluation, Assessment, and Interpretation  479
Section F: Use of the Internet in Career Services  479
Section G: Supervision, Training, and Teaching  479
Section H: Research and Publication  479
Section I: Resolving Ethical Issues  480
Using an Ethical Decision-Making Model  481

Summary  483
Case Study  484
Student Activities  484
References  485

Appendix A National Career Development Association Ethical Standards APP-1
Appendix B Educational and Career Planning Portfolio APP-7
Appendix C Career Counseling Competencies of the National Career Development Association (NCDA) APP-13
Appendix D 2009 CACREP Standards Related to Career Development APP-17
Appendix E National Career Development Guidelines (NCDG) Framework APP-18

Index I-1