CONTENTS – DETAILED

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Table of Cases</th>
<th>xxxi</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Table of Legislation</td>
<td>xxxv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of Abbreviations</td>
<td>lxvii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of Contributors</td>
<td>lxix</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. The Cross-Border Merger Directive

   Jérôme Vermeylen (ALTIUS)

   A. Introduction
   - (1) History 1.01
   - (2) Legal basis 1.06
   - (3) General remarks 1.08

   B. Scope of Application
   - (1) Principle 1.12
   - (2) Merger 1.13
   - (3) Mergeable limited liability companies
     - (a) Limited liability companies 1.19
     - (b) Mergeable companies 1.27
   - (4) EEA companies 1.30
   - (5) Companies of different ‘nationalities’ 1.31
   - (6) Veto by the national authorities 1.33

   C. Procedure
   - (1) General principles 1.35
   - (2) Common draft terms of merger
     - (a) Purpose 1.40
     - (b) Form and content 1.42
     - (c) Filing, publication, and availability 1.48
   - (3) Management report 1.54
   - (4) Interim accounting statement 1.59
   - (5) Independent expert report
     - (a) Principles 1.61
     - (b) Independent experts 1.63
     - (c) Content 1.65
     - (d) Exceptions 1.66
     - (e) Report in view of a contribution in kind 1.70a
   - (6) Informing shareholders and employees 1.71
   - (7) Approval of the merger
     - (a) Principle and exceptions 1.76
     - (b) Timing 1.84
     - (c) Form, quorum, and majority 1.85
     - (d) Content of the approval 1.88
   - (8) Employee participation 1.90
   - (9) Verification of the legality of the merger
     - (a) Verification in two stages 1.93
2. Cross-Border Mergers and Reorganizations outside
the Cross-Border Merger Directive

Marie Brasseur and Jérôme Vermeylen (ALTIUS)

A. Introduction
(1) The CBMD as preferred reorganization method
(2) Cross-border reorganizations outside the CBMD
(3) Terminology

B. Transfer of Corporate Seat
(1) Incorporation theory vs real seat theory
   (a) Lex societatis and connecting factors
   (b) Conflicting results
   (c) Impact of EU and EEA law on the connecting factors
(2) Harmonized transfer of the corporate seat
   (a) Transfer of the corporate seat of SEs
   (b) Transfer of the corporate seat of SCEs
   (c) Transfer of the corporate seat of EEIGs
(3) Non-harmonized transfer of the corporate seat
   (a) Freedom of establishment
   (b) Case law regarding the mobility of companies
   (c) Transfer of corporate seat
(4) Towards a harmonization of corporate seat transfers in Europe?
   (a) Need for harmonization
   (b) The draft Fourteenth Company Law Directive

C. Cross-Border Mergers outside the CBMD
(1) Limited scope of the CBMD
(2) Right to a cross-border merger outside the CBMD and applicable rules
   (a) Harmonized cross-border mergers
   (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
D. Cross-Border Divisions 2.239
   (1) Definitions 2.239
   (2) Right to a cross-border division 2.241
      (a) Issues 2.241
      (b) Company transformation operations 2.244
      (c) Limits to the right to perform divisions 2.249
      (d) Uncertainties in relation to the right to perform divisions 2.250
   (3) Applicable rules and procedure 2.255
      (a) Applicable substantive rules 2.255
      (b) Conflict of laws 2.258

E. Other Cross-Border Reorganizations 2.259
   (1) Which operations does this refer to? 2.259
   (2) Right to perform global asset transfers 2.270
      (a) Issues 2.270
      (b) Company transformation operations 2.272
      (c) Limits to the right to perform global asset transfers 2.273
      (d) Uncertainties in relation to the right to perform global asset transfers 2.275
   (3) Applicable rules and procedure 2.279
      (a) Applicable substantive rules 2.279
      (b) Conflict of laws 2.281

3. The EU Tax Framework for Cross-Border Reorganizations within the EU 88

Ivo Vande Velde (Tiberghien)

A. The Merger Tax Directive 3.01
   (1) Objective and history 3.01
   (2) Implementation—Direct effect 3.06
   (3) Transactions covered 3.08
      (a) Merger 3.09
      (b) Division 3.13
      (c) Partial division 3.18
      (d) Transfer of assets 3.21
      (e) Exchange of shares 3.28
      (f) Transfer of the registered office of an SE or SCE 3.34
   (4) Qualifying companies—geographical scope 3.35
      (a) ‘Company from a Member State’ 3.35
      (b) ‘Cross-border’ transactions 3.38
      (c) ‘Intra-community’ transactions 3.39
   (5) Mergers and (partial) divisions 3.42
      (a) Roll-over relief for transferred assets and liabilities 3.42
      (b) Carry-over of tax-exempt reserves 3.49
      (c) Carried-forward tax losses 3.53
      (d) Relief at the level of the shareholders (other than the receiving company) 3.56
      (e) Cancellation of shares in a parent/subsidiary merger or division 3.63
   (6) Specific rules for transfers of assets (asset mergers) 3.64
   (7) Specific rules for exchanges of shares (share mergers) 3.67
   (8) Reorganizations involving a transfer of a permanent establishment 3.71
   (9) Reorganizations involving tax-transparent entities 3.78
(10) Transfer of the registered office of an SE or SCE 3.83
(11) Anti-abuse provision 3.86

B. Exit Taxation 3.91
(1) Exit taxes: introduction 3.91
(2) Exit taxes on emigration of individuals 3.92
(3) The Commission's view 3.93
(4) The Court's view 3.96
(5) Corporate migrations and reorganizations: status 3.101

C. Cross-Border Loss Relief 3.106
(1) Relief for losses incurred in the Member State of the transferring company 3.107
(2) Claw-back of losses incurred in a permanent establishment 3.108

4. Employee Participation Schemes and European Employment
Rules for Cross-Border Reorganizations 123

Michael Tépass (Linklaters LLP)

A. The Cross-Border Merger Directive 4.02
(1) Introduction and concepts 4.02
(2) The rule: participation system of the country of registration 4.09
(3) The exceptions to the rule 4.10
   (a) Two or three exceptions to the rule? 4.13
   (b) Equal inclusion of foreign-based employees: specific or abstract review? 4.15
(4) The negotiation procedure 4.17
   (a) Information about the cross-border merger and initiation of the special negotiating body 4.18
   (b) The special negotiating body 4.22
(5) The agreement with the special negotiating body 4.37
(6) The standard rules—when they apply and when they do not apply 4.40
   (a) Application by agreement 4.40
   (b) Application in the absence of agreement 4.41
   (c) Application of standard rules by decision of management 4.43
   (d) Special negotiating body decision to discontinue negotiations 4.49
(7) The standard rules—what they say 4.50
(8) Miscellaneous rules 4.53
   (a) Option not to apply the standard rules on participation 4.53
   (b) Option to limit the proportion of employee representatives 4.54
   (c) Counting foreign-based employees in respect of thresholds for participation 4.55
   (d) Subsequent domestic mergers 4.56
   (e) Subsequent transformations 4.57

B. The Acquired Rights Directive 4.58
(1) Safeguarding of employees' rights 4.59
   (a) Transfer of rights and obligations 4.59
   (b) Objection to the transfer of employment 4.63
   (c) Preservation of employee representation 4.65
(2) Information and consultation 4.66
5. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Belgium

Jérôme Vermeylen, Sven Demeulemeester, and Ivo Vande Velde (ALTIUS Tiberghien)

A. Corporate

(1) Introduction

(2) Mergers according to the CBMD
   (a) Scope of application
   (b) Procedure
   (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger
   (d) Post-merger formalities
   (e) Protection of minority shareholders
   (f) Protection of creditors
   (g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions

(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE
   (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
   (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions
   (d) Cross-border contribution or transfer of a branch of activity or of a universality of assets
   (e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment

(1) Employee participation
   (a) Introduction
   (b) Negotiating procedure
   (c) Confidentiality
   (d) Operation of the representative body
   (e) Protection of employees' representatives
   (f) Compliance

(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Information and consultation
   (b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

C. Tax

(1) Introduction

(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations

(3) Qualifying companies

(4) Mergers and divisions
   (a) Outbound mergers and divisions
   (b) Inbound mergers and divisions
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a transfer of a Belgian permanent establishment
   (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company

(5) Transfer of assets
   (a) Outbound transfer of assets
   (b) Inbound transfer of assets
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Belgian permanent establishment

(6) Transfer of corporate seat
   (a) Transfer of the registered seat of an SE/SCE
   (b) Other corporate seat transfers

(7) Anti-abuse provision
6. Cross-Border Reorganizations in the Czech Republic

David Neveselý, Jan Krejša, Michaela Řezníková and Michaela Riedlová
(Havel, Holášek and Partners)

A. Corporate

(1) Introduction

(2) Mergers according to the CBMD

(a) Scope of application

(b) Procedure

(c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger

(d) Post-merger formalities

(e) Protection of minority shareholders

(f) Protection of creditors

(g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions

(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations

(a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE

(b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers

(c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions

(d) Cross-border global transfer of assets and liabilities

(e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment

(1) Employee participation

(a) Introduction

(b) Negotiating procedure

(c) Confidentiality

(d) Operation of the representative body

(e) Protection of employees' representatives

(f) Compliance

(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations

(a) Information and consultation

(b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

C. Tax

(1) Introduction

(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations

(3) Qualifying companies

(4) Mergers and divisions

(a) Outbound mergers and divisions

(b) Inbound mergers and divisions

(c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a transfer of a Czech permanent establishment

(d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company

(5) Transfer of assets

(a) Outbound transfer of assets

(b) Inbound transfer of assets

(c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Czech permanent establishment

(6) Transfer of corporate seat

(a) Transfer of the registered office of an SE/SCE

(b) Other corporate seat transfers

(7) Anti-abuse provision
7. Cross-Border Reorganizations in France

John R Flanigan, Katell Deniel-Allioux, Sandra Hazan, and Thierry Renaud de la Faverie (Salans)

A. Corporate

(1) Introduction
(2) Mergers according to the CBMD
   (a) Scope of application
   (b) Procedure
   (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger
   (d) Post-merger formalities
   (e) Protection of minority shareholders
   (f) Protection of creditors
   (g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions

(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE
   (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
   (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions
   (d) Cross-border contribution or transfer of a branch of activity or of a universality of assets
   (e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment

(1) Employee participation
   (a) Introduction
   (b) Negotiating procedure
   (c) Confidentiality
   (d) Operation of the representative body
   (e) Protection of employee representatives
   (f) Compliance

(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Information and consultation
   (b) Safeguarding of employee rights

C. Tax

(1) Introduction
(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations
(3) Qualifying companies
(4) Mergers and divisions
   (a) Outbound mergers and divisions
   (b) Inbound mergers and divisions
   (c) ‘Extra-territorial’ mergers and divisions involving a transfer of a French permanent establishment
   (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company

(5) Transfer of assets
   (a) Outbound transfer of assets
   (b) Inbound transfer of assets
   (c) ‘Extra-territorial’ transfer of assets involving a transfer of a French permanent establishment

(6) Transfer of corporate seat
   (a) Transfer of the registered office of an SE/SCE
9. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Hungary

Mihály Barcza, József Balázs Fenyvesi, Barna Fazekas, and Zsolt Cseledi (Oppenheim Law Firm)

A. Corporate

1) Introduction

2) Mergers according to the CBMD

(a) Scope of application
(b) Procedure
(c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger
(d) Post-merger formalities
(e) Protection of minority shareholders
(f) Protection of creditors
(g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions

3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations

(a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE
(b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
(c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions
(d) Other types of reorganizations in a cross-border context
(e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment

1) Employee participation

(a) Introduction
(b) Negotiating procedure
(c) Confidentiality
(d) Operation of the representative body
(e) Protection of employees' representatives
(f) Compliance

2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations

(a) Information and consultation
(b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

C. Tax

1) Introduction

2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations

3) Qualifying companies

4) Mergers and divisions

(a) Outbound mergers and divisions
(b) Inbound mergers and divisions
(c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a Hungarian permanent establishment
(d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company

5) Transfer of assets

(a) Outbound transfer of assets
(b) Inbound transfer of assets
(c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Hungarian permanent establishment
10. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Ireland

Jennifer McCarthy, Ian Moore, and Paul Fahy (A&L Goodbody)

A. Corporate
(1) Introduction
(2) Mergers according to the CBMD
   (a) Scope of application
   (b) Procedure
   (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger
   (d) Post-merger formalities
   (e) Protection of minority shareholders
   (f) Protection of creditors
   (g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions
(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE
   (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
   (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions
   (d) Other forms of reorganizations
   (e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment
(1) Employee participation
   (a) Introduction
   (b) Negotiating procedure
   (c) Confidentiality
   (d) Operation of the representative body
   (e) Protection of employees' representatives
   (f) Compliance
(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Information and consultation
   (b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

C. Tax
(1) Introduction
(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations
(3) Qualifying companies
(4) Mergers and divisions
   (a) Outbound mergers and divisions
   (b) Inbound mergers and divisions
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving an Irish permanent establishment
   (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company
(5) Transfer of assets
   (a) Outbound transfer of assets
   (b) Inbound transfer of assets
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of an Irish permanent establishment
11. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Italy

Rosario Zacca and Luciano Acciari (Gianni, Origoni, Grippo & Partners)

A. Corporate

(1) Introduction

(2) Mergers according to the CBMD
   (a) Scope of application
   (b) Procedure
   (c) Common draft terms of merger
   (d) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger
   (e) Post-merger formalities
   (f) Protection of minority shareholders
   (g) Protection of creditors
   (h) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions

(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE
   (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
   (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions
   (d) Other cross-border reorganizations
   (e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment

(1) Employee participation
   (a) Introduction
   (b) Negotiating procedure
   (c) Confidentiality
   (d) Operation of the representative body
   (e) Protection of employees' representatives
   (f) Compliance

(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations
   (a) Information and consultation
   (b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

C. Tax

(1) Introduction

(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations

(3) Qualifying companies

(4) Mergers and divisions
   (a) Outbound mergers and divisions
   (b) Inbound mergers and divisions
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving an Italian permanent establishment
   (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company

(5) Transfer of assets
   (a) Outbound transfer of assets
   (b) Inbound transfer of assets
   (c) Extra-territorial transfer of assets involving a transfer of an Italian permanent establishment
12. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Luxembourg

Pit Reckinger, Léon Gloden, and Dirk Richter (Elvinger, Hoss & Prussen)

A. Corporate

(1) Introduction

(2) Mergers according to the CBMD

(a) Scope of application

(b) Procedure

(c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger

(d) Post-merger formalities

(e) Protection of minority shareholders

(f) Protection of creditors

(g) Invalidity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions

(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations

(a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE

(b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers

(c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions

(d) Cross-border contributions or transfers of a branch of activity or of a universality of assets

(e) Transfer of corporate seat

B. Employment

(1) Employee participation

(a) Introduction

(b) Negotiating procedure

(c) Confidentiality

(d) Operation of the representative body

(e) Protection of employee representatives

(f) Compliance

(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations

(a) Information and consultation

(b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

C. Tax

(1) Introduction

(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations

(3) Qualifying collective undertakings

(4) Mergers and divisions

(a) Outbound mergers and divisions

(b) Inbound mergers and divisions

(c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a transfer of a Luxembourg permanent establishment

(d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring collective undertaking

(5) Transfer of assets

(a) Outbound transfer of assets

(b) Inbound transfer of assets
13. Cross-Border Reorganizations in the Netherlands

13.01 Corporate
   (1) Introduction
   (2) Mergers according to the CBMD
      (a) Scope of application
      (b) Procedure
      (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger
      (d) Post-merger formalities
      (e) Protection of minority shareholders
      (f) Protection of creditors
      (g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions
   (3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations
      (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE
      (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers
      (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions
      (d) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations
      (e) Transfer of corporate seat

13.152 Employment
   (1) Employee participation
      (a) Introduction
      (b) Negotiating procedure
      (c) Confidentiality
      (d) Protection of employees' representatives
      (e) Compliance
   (2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations
      (a) Information and consultation
      (b) Safeguarding of employees' rights

13.216 Tax
   (1) Introduction
   (2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations
   (3) Qualifying companies
   (4) Mergers and divisions
      (a) Outbound mergers and divisions
      (b) Inbound mergers and divisions
      (c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a Dutch permanent establishment
      (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company
   (5) Transfer of assets
      (a) Outbound transfer of assets
      (b) Inbound transfer of assets
(c) ‘Extra-territorial’ transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Dutch permanent establishment 13.273
(6) Transfer of corporate seat 13.275
   (a) Transfer of the registered office of an SE/SCE 13.275
   (b) Other corporate seat transfers 13.278
(7) Anti-abuse provision 13.279

14. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Poland

Marek Wróniak, Ewa Śleżak, Agnieszka Szczodra-Hajduk, Grzegorz Barszcz, Julia Walicka, Andrzej Dębiec, and Joanna Fiema (Hogan Lovells)

A. Corporate
   (1) Introduction 14.01
   (2) Mergers according to the CBMD 14.03
      (a) Scope of application 14.05
      (b) Procedure 14.21
      (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger 14.90
      (d) Post-merger formalities 14.97
      (e) Protection of minority shareholders 14.102
      (f) Protection of creditors 14.103
      (g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions 14.105
   (3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations 14.111
      (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE 14.111
      (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers 14.112
      (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions 14.115
      (d) Other cross-border reorganizations 14.118
      (e) Transfer of corporate seat 14.119

B. Employment
   (1) Employee participation 14.137
      (a) Introduction 14.138
      (b) Negotiating procedure 14.145
      (c) Confidentiality 14.180
      (d) Operation of the representative body 14.182
      (e) Protection of employees’ representatives 14.184
      (f) Compliance 14.186
   (2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations 14.187
      (a) Information and consultation 14.189
      (b) Safeguarding of employees’ rights 14.192

C. Tax
   (1) Introduction 14.195
   (2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations 14.200
   (3) Qualifying companies 14.206
   (4) Mergers and divisions 14.208
      (a) Outbound mergers and divisions 14.208
      (b) Inbound mergers and division 14.234
      (c) ‘Extra-territorial’ mergers and divisions involving a Polish permanent establishment 14.241
      (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company 14.245
   (5) Transfer of assets 14.255
      (a) Outbound transfer of assets 14.255
Contents – Detailed

(b) Inbound transfer of assets  14.265
(c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Polish permanent establishment  14.267

(6) Transfer of corporate seat  14.269
(a) Transfer of the registered office of an SE/SCE  14.269
(b) Other corporate seat transfers  14.273

(7) Anti-abuse provision  14.274

15. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Spain  699

Ignacio Corbera Dale, Misericòrdia Borras Cabacas, and Francisco Lavandera Noguera (J&A Garrigues, SLP)

A. Corporate  15.01

1. Introduction  15.01
2. Mergers according to the CBMD  15.05
   (a) Scope of application  15.09
   (b) Procedure  15.23
   (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger  15.83
   (d) Post-merger formalities  15.88
   (e) Protection of minority shareholders  15.105
   (f) Protection of creditors  15.107
   (g) Nullity, liability, and criminal sanctions  15.112
3. Other forms of cross-border reorganizations  15.120
   (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE  15.120
   (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers  15.121
   (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions  15.125
   (d) Cross-border global transfer of assets and liabilities  15.144
   (e) Transfer of corporate seat  15.154

B. Employment  15.181

1. Employee participation  15.181
   (a) Introduction  15.181
   (b) Negotiating procedure  15.192
   (c) Confidentiality  15.239
   (d) Operation of the representative body  15.241
   (e) Protection of employees' representatives  15.242
   (f) Compliance  15.245
2. Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations  15.249
   (a) Information and consultation  15.249
   (b) Safeguarding of employees' rights  15.254

C. Tax  15.260

1. Introduction  15.260
2. Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations  15.262
3. Qualifying companies  15.267
4. Mergers and divisions  15.270
   (a) Outbound mergers and divisions  15.270
   (b) Inbound mergers and divisions  15.302
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a Spanish permanent establishment  15.316
   (d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company  15.320
Contents – Detailed

(5) Transfer of assets 15.329
   (a) Outbound transfer of assets 15.329
   (b) Inbound transfer of assets 15.337
   (c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Spanish permanent establishment 15.339
(6) Transfer of corporate seat 15.342
   (a) Transfer of the registered office of an SE/SCE 15.342
   (b) Other corporate seat transfers 15.345
(7) Anti-abuse provision 15.347

16. Cross-Border Reorganizations in Sweden 762
   Per Hedman, Jonatan Söderkvist, Johanna Nilsson, Anna Romell Stenmark, and Anna Lewander (Advokatfirman Lindahl)

A. Corporate 16.01
   (1) Introduction 16.01
   (2) Mergers according to the CBMD 16.04
      (a) Scope of application 16.06
      (b) Procedure 16.19
      (c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger 16.101
      (d) Post merger formalities 16.104
      (e) Protection of minority shareholders 16.113
      (f) Protection of creditors 16.115
      (g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions 16.116
   (3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations 16.125
      (a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE 16.125
      (b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers 16.126
      (c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions 16.130
      (d) Other cross-border reorganizations 16.134
      (e) Transfer of corporate seat 16.135

B. Employment 16.150
   (1) Employee participation 16.150
      (a) Introduction 16.150
      (b) Negotiating procedure 16.159
      (c) Confidentiality 16.181
      (d) Operation of the representative body 16.182
      (e) Protection of employees' representatives 16.183
      (f) Compliance 16.186
   (2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations 16.187
      (a) Information and consultation 16.187
      (b) Safeguarding of employees' rights 16.192

C. Tax 16.195
   (1) Introduction 16.195
   (2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations 16.197
   (3) Qualifying companies 16.201
   (4) Mergers and divisions 16.206
      (a) Outbound mergers and divisions 16.206
      (b) Inbound mergers and divisions 16.223
      (c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and divisions involving a Swedish permanent establishment 16.228
Contents — Detailed

(d) Consequences for the shareholders of the transferring company 16.230
(5) Transfer of assets 16.234
(a) Outbound transfer of assets 16.234
(b) Inbound transfer of assets 16.239
(c) 'Extra-territorial' transfer of assets involving a transfer of a Swedish permanent establishment 16.240
(6) Transfer of corporate seat 16.241
(a) Transfer of the registered office of an SC/SCE 16.241
(b) Other corporate seat transfers 16.245
(7) Anti-abuse provision 16.247

17. Cross-Border Reorganizations in the UK 808
Nick Parden, Bernard Wall, Elizabeth Slattery, Jo Broadbent, Karen Hughes, and Peter Owen (Hogan Lovells International LLP)

A. Corporate 17.01
(1) Introduction 17.01
(2) Mergers according to the CBMD 17.05
(a) Scope of application 17.07
(b) Procedure 17.25
(c) Entry into effect and consequences of the merger 17.89
(d) Post-merger formalities 17.95
(e) Protection of minority shareholders 17.110
(f) Protection of creditors 17.112
(g) Nullity, liabilities, and criminal sanctions 17.119
(3) Other forms of cross-border reorganizations 17.123
(a) Cross-border merger through the formation of an SE or an SCE 17.123
(b) Non-harmonized cross-border mergers 17.124
(c) Cross-border divisions and partial divisions 17.131
(d) Transfer of corporate seat 17.141
B. Employment 17.153
(1) Employee participation 17.153
(a) Introduction 17.154
(b) Negotiating procedure 17.160
(c) Confidentiality 17.192
(d) Operation of the representative body 17.197
(e) Protection of employees' representatives 17.198
(f) Compliance 17.202
(2) Other employment rules applicable to cross-border reorganizations 17.209
(a) Information and consultation 17.210
(b) Safeguarding of employees' rights 17.214
C. Tax 17.216
(1) Introduction 17.216
(2) Tax-neutral cross-border reorganizations 17.217
(3) Qualifying companies 17.221
(4) Mergers and partial divisions 17.225
(a) Outbound mergers and partial divisions 17.225
(b) Inbound mergers and partial divisions 17.253
(c) 'Extra-territorial' mergers and partial divisions involving the transfer of a UK permanent establishment 17.261