Poverty and the Policy Response to the Economic Crisis in Liberia

Edited by Quentin Wodon
Contents

Foreword ix
Acknowledgments xi
Acronyms and Abbreviations xii

1. Poverty and the Policy Response to the Economic Crisis in Liberia: Brief Overview 1

PART I: POVERTY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT DIAGNOSTIC 7

2. Poverty in Liberia: Level, Profile, and Determinants 9
   1. Introduction 9
   2. Methodology 10
   3. Poverty Profile and Determinants 15
   4. Conclusion 31
   Annex: Sensitivity of Poverty Estimates to Caloric Threshold 32

3. Education in Liberia: Basic Diagnostic Using the 2007 CWIQ Survey 35
   1. Introduction 35
   2. School Enrollment, Reason for Not Enrolling, and Satisfaction with Schools 36
   3. Benefit Incidence of Public Spending for Education 51
   4. Correlates of School Enrollment 54
   5. Conclusion 57

4. Health in Liberia: Basic Diagnostic Using the 2007 CWIQ Survey 60
   1. Introduction 60
   2. Patterns of Morbidity, Likelihood of Seeking Care, and Reason for Not Seeking Care 61
   3. Benefit Incidence of Public Spending for Health 74
   4. Determinants of the Demand for Care 77
   5. Conclusion 80

PART II: IMPACT OF HIGHER FOOD PRICES AND FISCAL MEASURES TO RESPOND TO THE CRISIS 83

5. Rice Prices and Poverty in Liberia 85
   1. Introduction 85
   2. Rice Production and Consumption in Liberia: A Brief Review 87
   3. Rice Production and Consumption in the 2007 CWIQ Survey 88
   4. Simulating the Impact on Poverty of Changes in the Price of Rice 92
   5. Conclusion 97