Diversity in European Marketing

Text and Cases
Contents

Preface
5

Part 1
Targeting Diverse Demographics and Managing Structural Diversity in Europe
13

1  Migration and Minorities in Europe
15
1.1  Background
16
1.2  Global Overview
17
1.3  European Overview
21
1.4  Acculturation Process and Ethnic Marketing
26
1.4.1  The Consumer Perspective
26
1.4.2  The Corporate Perspective
29
1.5  Challenges Facing Marketers
30
1.6  Case Study: Bankamiz
33
1.6.1  Targeting Immigrants in Financial Services and the Banking Industry
33
1.6.2  Bankamiz: A new division of Deutsche Bank for Turkish immigrants
34

Student Assignments
40

2  Fighting social isolation through a user-friendly mobile phone: Bazile Telecom
57

2.1  Introduction
57
2.2  Ageing consumers in Europe
59
2.3  Bazile Telecom: A start-up in user-friendly mobile phone and service
63

Student Assignments
73
Additional Readings
74
References
74
3 Changing Media Regulation in Europe: VIASAT3 in Hungary

3.1 Background

3.2 Main features of the European television scene and common European television regulation

3.3 The Hungarian Television scene at the Millennium

3.4 The Launch of VIASAT3 and its Positioning

3.5 Regulatory burdens on regional and national television channels registered in Hungary

3.6 The growth of VIASAT3

3.7 Business as usual: from Conflict to Conflict

3.8 What went wrong? Questions for the Management

Student Assignments

References

4 Managing early and mature markets in Europe: The UniCredit Group

4.1 Banking in Europe

4.2 Received Theory and Empirical Insights

4.3 The UniCredit Group

Student Assignments

References

---

Part 2

Acknowledging and Managing Diversity in Consumer Behavior in Europe

5 Nostalgic Branding in Central Europe

5.1 Background

5.2 The Concepts of Nostalgia and Retro Branding

5.3 Branding in Central Europe

5.4 Changes of Consumers' Attitudes towards Local Brands

5.5 Kofola as an Example of a Revived Brand

Student Assignments

Additional Readings

References

6 Diversity in European Retailing

6.1 European Retail Diversity

6.2 Introduction to Retail Strategy

6.3 Internationalization Strategies in Retailing

6.4 More with Less – The Aldi Approach to European Retailing

6.4.1 Introduction

6.4.2 Consistently Simple – The Aldi Business Model
6.4.3 Taking Aldi Abroad – Adapting a Standardized System to Local Needs 145
6.4.4 From Cheap and Commonplace to Chic and Convenient: Aldi in the United Kingdom 148
Student Assignments 152
Additional Readings 153
References 153

7 Private Label Strategies in Europe 155
7.1 Private Label Evolution in Europe 155
7.2 Private Labels at Delhaize, Belgium 166
  7.2.1 Delhaize’s 142 years of History 166
  7.2.2 Development of Private Labels in the Delhaize Group 168
  7.2.3 Conclusion 174
Student Assignments 175
References 176

8 The Consumer as a Co-Producer and Prosumer: Convenience Food Marketing 179
8.1 Background 179
8.2 History of Convenience Food 180
8.3 Recent Food Trends in Norway 182
8.4 Rieber & Son and Toro’s Product Portfolios and Strategies 183
8.5 The Toro customer as a prosumer and the possibility of “I-made-it-myself-effects” 185
8.6 The Tikka Masala Experiment 188
8.7 Toro and the Competition 190
Student Assignments 191
References 192

Part 3
Responding to Diverse Marketing Environments and Managing Diversity in Europe 193

9 How companies organize their European Business: The Role of Regional Headquarters 195
9.1 Do Regional Headquarters Matter? 195
9.2 How Regional Strategy Can Add Value 198
9.3 Developing Regional Strategies and Structures 200
9.4 Managing Regional Headquarters 205
9.5 Puma and the Virtual Matrix Structure 207
9.6 Conclusion 214
Student Assignments 216
References 217
10 Managing consumer's experiences: Design as a solution for transformation

10.1 Introduction

10.2 From experience to transformation economy

10.3 Transformation Economy
   10.3.1 What is transformation economy?
   10.3.2 What constitutes a transformation?
   10.3.3 How is value created?

10.4 Personal transformations

10.5 Case 1: ILLE-OLLA maternity clothing

10.6 Transformation of physical environments

10.7 Case 2: The SEEYOU project

10.8 Discussion

Student Assignments

References

---

11 European Market Entry — The Case of DeLaval

11.1 Introduction

11.2 Company Background

11.3 DeLaval in 2008

11.4 The Global Milk Business

11.5 The Supply Side: Dairy Farm Equipment Industry

11.6 How to go to Market?

11.7 Outline of a Customer Centric Go-to-Market Strategy

Student Assignments

References

---

12 Growing with the Wind: The Case of Vestas

12.1 The Wind Energy Industry – Leading the Transition to a New Energy Economy

12.2 Vestas Wind Systems – A Danish Niche Player’s Journey to Global Leadership

12.3 Opportunities and Challenges in Remaining ‘No. 1 in Modern Energy’

12.4 Outlook

Student Assignments

References

Authors