Law and Policy for China’s Market Socialism

Edited by
John Garrick
Contents

List of illustrations xi
List of contributors xii
Preface xvii
Acknowledgements xviii
List of abbreviations xix

Introduction: law and policy for China’s market socialism
JOHN GARRICK 1

PART I

China’s evolving investment, company and business law environment 19

1. China’s outward direct investment in context: from ‘open door’ to ‘going out’
   JIANFU CHEN 21

2. Company law reform in China
   XIANCHU ZHANG 39

3. China’s enterprise bankruptcy law: implementation of the corporate reorganization provisions
   ROMAN TOMASIC AND ZINIAN ZHANG 55

   YAN CHANG BENNETT 70

PART II

Critical issues for China’s law and policy reforms 85

5. Understanding Chinese real estate: the property boom in perspective
   RICHARD HU 87
Contents

6 The political economy of China's environmental law reforms 101
    FENG LIN, ANDREW CHAN AND WILSON CHEUNG

7 Implementing China's labor law reforms: interests and obligations at the firm level 118
    WILLIAM J. HURST, JONATHAN KINKEL AND ALEXANDRA SOWASH

8 Chinese outward direct investment: case studies of SOEs going global 131
    YINGJIE GUO, SHUMEI HOU, GRAEME SMITH AND SELENE MARTINEZ-PACHECO

9 China's taxation law reforms in the context of 'market socialism' 144
    JOHN GARRICK

PART III
Courts, alternative dispute resolution and anti-corruption measures in China 165

10 Economic and social rights: the role of courts in China 167
    RANDALL PEERENBOOM

11 Alternative dispute resolution in China 185
    FAN YU

12 Organized crime in China: the Chongqing crackdown (重庆打黑行动) 202
    NORMAN P. HO

13 Conclusion: law and policy for 'opening up' [kaifang] and 'going out' [zou chu qu] 215
    JOHN GARRICK

Bibliography 227
Index 253