Contents

Introduction
On the Brink of Change: Cuba’s Economy and Society at the Start of the 2010s .................................................. 1
Jorge I. Domínguez

I. Igniting Domestic Economic Growth
1. The Cuban Economy: An Evaluation and Proposals for Necessary Policy Changes ........................................ 21
Omar Everleny Pérez Villanueva

2. Monetary Duality in Cuba: Initial Stages and Future Prospects .... 39
Pavel Vidal Alejandro

Commentary: The Importance of the Right Incentives .......... 55
Dani Rodrik

3. Cuban Agriculture in the “Special Period” and Necessary Transformations ....................................................... 59
Armando Nova González

4. Cuban Agriculture Reforms after 2007 ............................75
Armando Nova González

Commentary: A Comparative View of Cuban Agricultural Institutions and Reforms ................................. 107
Dwight H. Perkins

II. Opportunities for Outward-Oriented Growth
5. Cuban Monetary Policy and the Global Crisis ......................115
Pavel Vidal Alejandro

6. Cuba’s Agricultural Sector and Its External Links .................137
Anicia García Álvarez
7. Foreign Direct Investment in China, Vietnam, and Cuba:
   Pertinent Experiences for Cuba ..................................................193
   Omar Everleny Pérez Villanueva

   Commentary: Cuba and the Challenges of Globalization ...........227
   Pedro Monreal González

   Commentary: A View from the East: Trade, Investment, and Economic Reform .............................................................237
   Regina Abrami

   Commentary: The Cuban Advantage .........................................243
   Sergio Silva-Castañeda

III. Ensuring Equity and Social Mobility

   Introductory Note: The Social Mobility Perspective and Its Usefulness for the Analysis of Inequality and Social Policy in Cuba .................................................................251
   Mayra Espina Prieto

8. Structural Change and Routes of Social Mobility in Today’s Cuba:
   Patterns, Profiles, and Subjectivities ...................................261
   Mayra Espina Prieto and Viviana Togores González

9. Geography and Habitat: Dimensions of Equity and Social Mobility in Cuba ...............................................................291
   Lucy Martín Posada and Lilia Núñez Moreno

   Elisa Reis and Graziella Moraes Dias da Silva

Acknowledgments ...............................................................327

Editors and Contributors ...................................................329