The internationalization of Japan

Edited by
Glenn D. Hook and Michael A. Weiner

London and New York
Contents

List of figures  ix
List of tables  x
Contributors  xii
Preface  xv
Dedicatorary note  xvii
Acknowledgements  xix
Conventions  xxi

Introduction
Glenn D. Hook and Michael A. Weiner  1

Part I  Comparison: Britain and the United States

1 Internationalization and the national economy: the British case  15
Andrew Gamble

2 American hegemony and the Japanese challenge  32
Richard Falk

Part II  Meanings and implications

3 Interdependence and internationalization  63
Ogata Sadako

4 Internal and external aspects of internationalization  72
Sugiyama Yasushi

5 The internationalization of political thought: liberal democracy in Japan  104
Tanaka Hiroshi

Part III  Japan and the world economy

6 Gearing economic policy to international harmony  119
Yamazawa Ippei
7 The internationalization of Japanese capital
   Sakamoto Katsuzō and Richard C. Conquest

8 The Internationalization of the Japanese automobile industry
   Shimokawa Kōichi

Part IV National and local politics

9 Japan’s political change towards internationalization:
   grafted democracy and political recruitment
   Yakushiji Taizō

10 The internationalization of Kanagawa Prefecture
   Takahashi Susumu

Part V Labour markets and migrant workers

11 Migrant workers: the Japanese case in international perspective
   Yoko Sellek and Michael A. Weiner

12 Reciprocity and migrant workers
   Hatsuse Ryūhei

13 The trade union response to migrant workers
   Nimura Kazuo

Part VI Education and the individual

14 The internationalization of education
   Ehara Takekazu

15 Data protection and the individual
   Horibe Masao

Part VII The future

16 Towards a new departure: alternatives for Japan
   Nagai Michio

17 The internationalization of Japan
   Katō Shūichi

Index