The Cooperative Business Movement, 1950 to the Present

PATRIZIA BATTILANI
University of Bologna

HARM G. SCHRÖTER
University of Bergen
Contents

[List of Contributors]  page ix

[Acknowledgments]  xi

Introduction: Principal Problems and General Development of Cooperative Enterprise
Patrizia Battilani and Harm G. Schröter  i

SECTION I  COOPERATIVE ISSUES IN A GLOBAL OVERVIEW

1 The International Cooperative Movement: A Quiet Giant
Ann Hoyt and Tito Menzani  23

2 A World of Variations: Sectors and Forms
Vera Zamagni  63

3 Cooperative Movements in the Republic of Korea
Hongjoo Jung and Hans Jürgen Rösner  83

4 "... What Is the End Purpose of It All?": The Centrality of Values for Cooperative Success in the Marketplace
Ian MacPherson  107

Peter Kramper  126

6 Demutualization and Its Problems
Patrizia Battilani and Harm G. Schröter  150

SECTION 2  SELECTED CORE ISSUES OF COOPERATIVE ENTERPRISE IN A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

7 Legal Frameworks and Property Rights in U.S. Agricultural Cooperatives: The Hybridization of Cooperative Structures
Fabio Chaddad and Michael L. Cook  175

8 The Performance of Workers' Cooperatives
Virginie Pérotin  195
Contents

9 Organization: Top Down or Bottom Up? The Organizational Development of Consumer Cooperatives, 1950–2000
Espen Ekberg
222

10 The Politics of Commercial Dynamics: Cooperative Adaptations to Postwar Consumerism in the United Kingdom and Sweden, 1950–2010
Katarina Friberg, Rachael Vorberg-Rugh, Anthony Webster, and John Wilson
243

Conclusion: The Decisive Factors of Cooperatives’ Future – Their Nature, Longevity, Role, and Environment
Patrizia Battilani and Harm G. Schröter
263

---

Appendix I Statement on the Cooperative Identity
277

Appendix II Figures on the Cooperative Movement Worldwide
279

Index
281