The Development of Consumer Credit in Global Perspective: Business, Regulation, and Culture

Edited by Jan Logemann
Contents

List of Figures vii
List of Tables ix
Contributors xi

Introduction: Toward a Global History of Credit in Modern Consumer Societies

Jan Logemann

Part I  Lenders and Lending Practices

1 Selling Televisions on Credit: The Rise of Consumer Loans in Postwar France
   Isabelle Gaillard 23

2 Moral or Modern Marketing? Sparkassen and Consumer Credit in West Germany
   Rebecca Belvederesi-Kochs 41

3 Credit in a Nation of Savers: The Growth of Consumer Borrowing in Japan
   Andrew Gordon 63

Part II  Borrowers and Credit Access

4 The Business of Working-Class Credit: Subprime Markets in the United Kingdom since 1880
   Sean O'Connell 85

5 American Women's Struggle to End Credit Discrimination in the Twentieth Century
   Lawrence Bowdish 109
6 Virtually Creditworthy: Privacy, the Right to Information, and Consumer Credit Reporting in West Germany, 1950–1985
Larry Frohman

129

Part III State Regulation and Credit Policies

7 Banking on Consumer Credit: Explaining Patterns of Household Borrowing in the United States and France
Gunnar Trumbull

157

8 French Consumer Credit Policy in the 1950s and 1960s: From Opposition to Control
Sabine Effosse

183

9 From Cradle to Bankruptcy? Credit Access and the American Welfare State
Jan Logemann

201

Part IV Cultures of Credit

10 Economic Agents and the Culture of Debt
Silke Meyer

223

11 Japan and the Western Model: An Economist's View of Cultures of Household Finance
Charles Yuji Horioka

243

12 "Ahead a Good Deal": Taking the Long View of Household Debt and Credit in American Life
Lendol Calder

257

Index

275