CONTENTS

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xvii

PART 1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND 1
Introduction 3
1. African Business and Capitalism in Historical Perspective 22

PART 2. GLOBALIZATION AND POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC TRANSFORMATION 43
2. Institutional Change in the 1990s
   Economic and Political Reform 45
3. Business, the African State, and Globalization in the New Millennium
   Transnational Influences and Domestic Responses 64

PART 3. THE DIVERSITY OF AFRICAN BUSINESS: PROBLEMS AND PROSPECTS 97
4. Foreign Investment beyond Compradorism and Primary Commodities
   The Role of the Global South 99
5. From Patrimonialism to Profit? The Transformation of Crony Capitalists and Bureaucratic Bourgeoisies 130
6. Going Continental, Going Global
   Africa's Corporate "Giants" 155
Conclusion
   Prospects for Business in Africa and African Business 183
Appendix 189
Notes 193
Bibliography 221
Further Reading 235
Index 237